INSTANO

PRESENTATION

IM HAWKINS in Treasure Island searched for bullion. We, the Class of 1926, searched for that most precious treasure—learning, with undaunted optimism and faith in the future.

Our star guided us through typhoons and gales and away from the reefs and maelstroms. Our voyage is o'er and our discoveries we pass on to you.

The Class of 1926 offers this INSTANO as a voyage of discovery with the hope that it may serve the voyageurs of the future.

PREFACE

HERE is our book! You, readers, are its judges. From a survey of its page of contents you will be able to decide whether or not the nature of the annual, its general style, will be sufficiently compelling in interests and entertainment to carry you on through an indefatigable perusal of its every leaf, portrait, and sketch. May this perusal lead you to the conclusion that we have been worthy standard-bearers of our Alma Mater in compiling this year book as a summary of our scholastic activities. Unless our INSTANO calls forth just such laudable criticism, we have failed in our efforts.

It is true the INSTANO Board, selected from the Senior Class, was chosen to assume the responsibilities, and, accordingly, to compile and publish the material. The Board did do this faithfully and untiringly, but it did not do it alone. Of necessity we called upon outside assistance. So at this time the INSTANO Board, in behalf of the Class of 1926, wishes to extend to these philanthropists our deep and sincere appreciation. To Miss Alma B. Munson goes our heartfelt and profound gratitude for the invaluable aid she so graciously rendered with helpful suggestions. At the same time we wish to express to Miss Bernice Orndorff due recognition for her kindly assistance. Without their support our plans and dreams would have resulted in dismal failure. We thank them!

ADVERTISEMENTS

To the Seniors:

All too soon will come the eagerly expected day on which you will graduate from Indiana. Hitherto, you have been looking forward to the end of your student days; thereafter, you will look back at it and them. Often at twilight you will turn the pages of this book and live again your Indiana days. Daily duties, ambitions, achievements, joys, sorrows, and all the other things that make up life will dull the edge of accurate memory and you will feel rather than remember "the golden haze of student days." What Emerson called "the solid angularity of fact" is never all of the truth. Truth and worth lie deeper than facts. It is only a commonplace truth that you will know Indiana better five years from now than you do today.

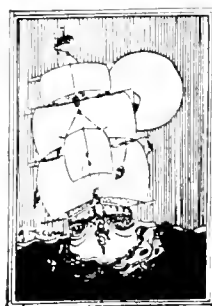

People never learn wisdom,—they grow into it. Things must be taken into the "maw of the mind" and mulled over, tried out with this experience and with that, ere wisdom comes.

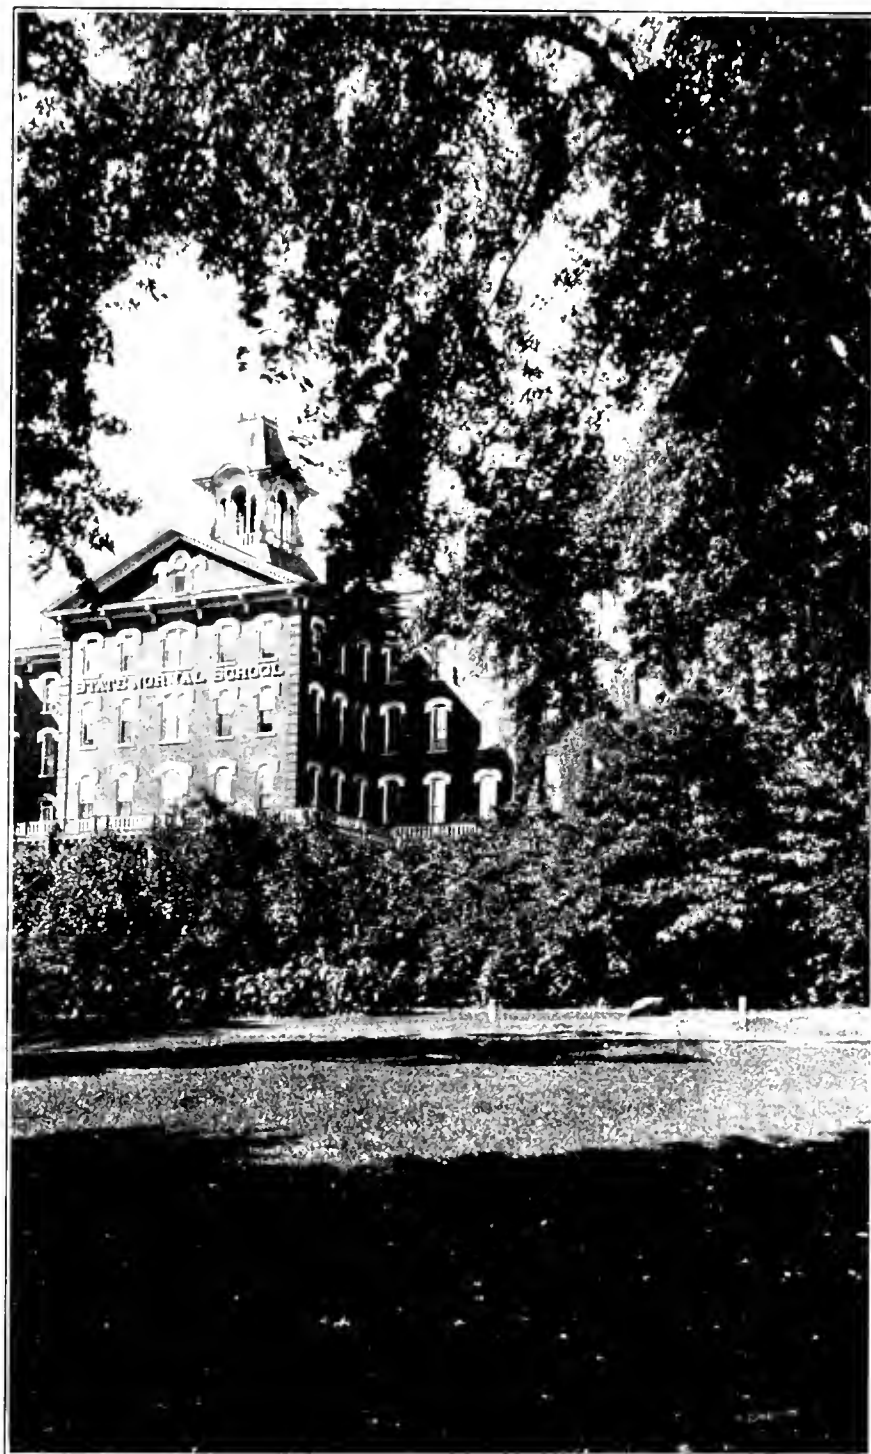

Has Indiana been to you a gateway, a series of steps, a vestibule, a voyage? Whatever it has been to you, go forth to your task—whatever it may be—with our best wishes for your success and happiness and ever increasing wisdom.

Cordially,

JOHN A. H. KEITH.

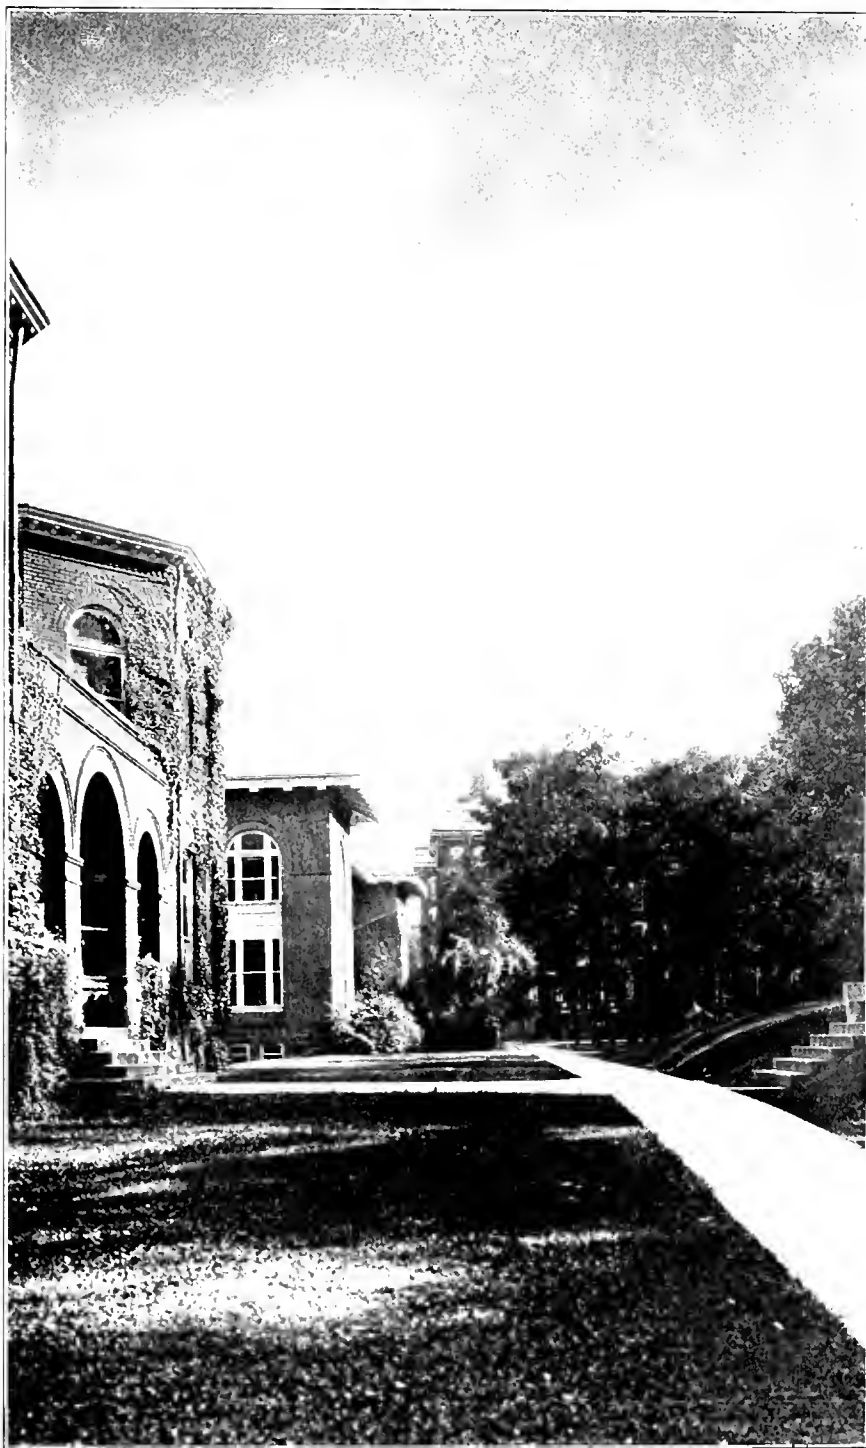

ONCE upon a time there was a people called the students who dwelt in a land of sunshine and flowers, temples, and towers. Eternal youth and happiness were their heritage.

Spirit of Indiana

On! On! On! On to victory,
Every one expects to see you win to-day.
Fight to win! "Play the game square."
Always for your Alma Mater do and dare!
Now then go! Give them not a show.
You have skill and daring, that we know,
For not only will you score but will add a few points more,
Just to show them how we do at Indiana.
Indiana, don't you hear our cheer?
That you'll honor us we have no fear,
See your pennant floating o'er the field!
Unto foemen you will never yield,
You will hear us as we shout and sing,
With your praises will the welkin ring,
Other teams will know their fate,
When they meet the "Red and Slate,"
It's the way we always do at Indiana.

Victory! Victory! Victory!
With your faces ever towards the foe,
Victory! Victory! Victory!
Pressing forward down the field you go!
Victory! Victory! Victory!
Every man is finding every play.
For 'tis written on your shield
"Unto foemen never yield,"
We will always do our best for Indiana

Horizontal

1. Intelligence Quotient Correlations: The correspondence in the Senior between I. Q.'s and classwork, which was sometimes high and sometimes low, and from which we have been led to conclude that I. Q.'s are not infallible.

4. What we thought we had got into that fateful Registration Day of September, 1921, when our life at Indiana began.

6. Where we have spent many happy half-hours after dinner and on Saturday nights—not to mention those blissful occasions known as the Junior and Senior Proms.

7. Our last and best Prom, the gayest and peppiest of all the Proms that ever happened to Indiana—a function so superlative, in fact, that its initials require a line all to themselves. True, some would maintain that S. P. means Senior Privileges; we, however, regard this interpretation as too far-fetched to be justifiable.

9. A state from which, along with a number of other states both near-by and distant, our school is at present attracting students.

10. Very important accessories of Indiana Seniors, amethysts and topazes being the order of the day.

12. The most remarkable forgathering of celebrities that was ever brought together in a single "primary group."

13. A familiar nickname of our most popular president.

14. A certain Juvenile Tribe sometimes observed to frequent these halls, that is commonly referred to as the Junior Class.

15. Health Month, 1926, during which we as usual surpassed the Juniors both in correction of defects and in special activities.

16. The very efficient editor-in-chief of our prize-winning year-book, THE INSTANT.

18. A teacher who, in her capacity as Faculty Advisor, has been a source of inspiration to THE INSTANT staff.

19. Women's Athletic Association, in which members of the Senior Class have figured prominently since the days of their "Juniorhood."

Vertical

1. The far-famed institution which is our beloved Alma Mater.

2. The faithful coach of many a victorious team of "Indiana", in whose ranks were to be found worthy representatives of the Senior Class.

3. 529, which is the record-breaking number of graduates in the record-breaking Class of '26.

4. Our Mary, let us affectionately call her, even if she did stand before the assembly morning after morning and expressively wield a baton while we sang songs that we really "enjoyed" singing.

5. A degree which ambitious souls among us have set as the next goal after graduation at I. S. N. S.

8. That historic spectacle of May 16, 1925, commemorating the Normal's Fiftieth Anniversary, to the success of which many of our number contributed by their chorus work or by their interpretation of leading parts.

9. The Oratorio given by the Lyric and the Men's Glee Clubs on December 15, 1925, which we may look back to as one of the numerous worthwhile performances that we helped to put over big.

10. What we were constantly endeavoring to do with our standards as well as our grades.

11. What we have learned to do with problems, both common and individual that ventured to come our way.

14. One whom we shall remember as the gracious guiding spirit of many a perilous student-teaching career.

16. Dramatic Editor of THE INSTANT, the excellent character of whose work behind the footlights is just one example of the very appreciable acting ability which is to be found in the Senior Class.

17. "Some weather"—that is to say, weather of the sort that upset our plans for the Outing last fall and that has prevailed more or less ever since.

20. "Many Additional Activities," under which we must lump together the other evidences of our class spirit, including reportorial and editorial work on the Indiana-Penn both last year and this, substantial assistance given the Indiana Lodge Project, and such other contributions to a Bigger and Better Indiana as will help to make the fame of our class live in the memory of all the classes to come.

She has a charm, she is clever and witty. Everybody loves our "Peg"; A winning smile and a way all her own. Could you add any more—we beg?

ELRENO ACKERMAN

"Ackie" Intermediate

Munhall Munhall High School
Literary

"A sunny temper guilds the edges of life's blackest cloud."

"Ackie" is one of the most popular girls in the school. At first we might attribute this to her good looks and ready wit, but on further acquaintance one knows it is because of her unfailing and sincere interest in everyone.

ROSE ADELSON

"Roses" Commercial

Kittanning Kittanning High School
Jr. Chamber of Commerce; Literary

If laughing makes one grow fat, Rose ought to weigh twice as much as she does. It wouldn't be a real week-end without Rose's box of eats. We wonder if "Pud" will always assist her in merriment! Any mischief on second floor was blamed on Rose. Nine times out of ten she was innocent, but smilingly took the "balling-out."

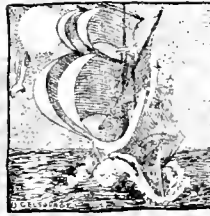

FRANCES AMBROSE

"Fan" Primary

Rural Valley Rural Valley H. S.

"A maid of winsome ways"

"Fan" and Mable seem to be inseparable. When buying your next pair of shoes, be sure to see "Fan" first; you may get a commission.

CORNELIA ANDERSON

"Andy" Commercial

Titusville Titusville High School

Literary: Junior Chamber of Commerce;
Vice-Pres. Commercial Class I

"To sleep or not to sleep—that is the question."

Andy is always on the go. She is a happy-go-lucky kid. She'll make a good groveology teacher. What will they do without "Andy" to help plan the tricks in Clark Hall? One who is tall and fair—"Herb" thinks the same we declare!

JENELLA M. ANDERSON

"Judy" Junior High

Indiana Indiana High School

Literary: Literary W. A. A.; Sec'y and
Treas. Sci Hi

Taking "Judy" seriously, she is a quiet, industrious girl, with all the earmarks of a great woman, and we will not be surprised at all if we hear big things about her in later years.

MARGARET C. ANDERSON

"Peg" Primary

Jenkintown Jenkintown H. S.

Literary: Y. W. C. A.; W. A. A.

Look what we have here! Brains? sure; good looks? why, of course. "Peg" is a regular village vamp, and if you want any examples of any one lovesick, look at Maley.

RUTH ALBERTA ANDERSON

"Andy" Primary

Corry Corry High School

Literary

*"Her eyes are blue as the fairy flax;
Her cheeks like the dawn of day."*

Her cheerful smile, pleasant countenance and charming "good morning" certainly go a long way toward making this old world seem brighter.

MYRTLE E. APPLEYARD

"Myrt" Intermediate

Lilly Lilly High School

Literary

Myrtle is a girl any one would do well to cultivate as a friend. If wishes will help her, her fortune is made.

KARL E. ARNHOLT

"Arnie" Junior High

Jeanette Freedom High School

Football; Sci III

"Anybody seen Arnie?" He's surely a fine fellow whom everybody knows; full of good humor and the possessor of a million-dollar smile. Arnie's bound to succeed.

MARIAN J. AYERS

Primary

Indiana Indiana High School

Literary; Lyric

*"No matter what this maiden tries,
She's certain to succeed,
Success itself within her lies,
Which nothing can impede."*

Marian is rather quiet, but enjoys a good time. She is one of our conscientious workers, but never too busy to be friendly.

MARY ELIZABETH BAGLEY

"Polly" Primary

Cherry Tree Cherry Tree H. S.

Literary; Y. W. C. A.

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart."

A sweet, demure little person whose greatest happiness lies in serving others. She has found the key to content!

BARBARA LOUISE BALTHASER

"Barb" Music

Harrisburg Harrisburg H. S.
Treasurer of Senior Music Class, Literary: Band, Vesper Choir, Lyric, Supervisor's Orchestra, Subscription Manager, Indiana Penn. "Martha by the Day"

To Barb, our pet, who's always on time
The music department submits this rhyme.

She's a bunch of onion-tops
A head of bushy wool.
You'd never think that she could be
Of jokes and tricks so full.
She never uses make-up
For fellows she'll not fall.
But yet in spite of all you'll find
She's the best pal of all!

MARGARET BARNES

"Peggy" Intermediate

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

"Writing is Peggy's guiding star
Which will bring her fame in lands afar."

With her natural sweetness of disposition added to her capabilities, her classmates and friends are sure that "Peggy" will make a success of all she undertakes.

BEATRICE BARCLAY

"Bea" Commercial

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.
Junior Chamber of Commerce; Literary
"Trouble, trouble—couldn't bubble."

Beatrice declared that her life was one blunder after another during her first two years, but this year she threw her cares to the wind. We wonder why? In "accounting" she will be missed.

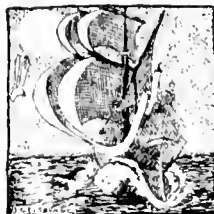

MARGARET BARRETT

"Peg" Commercial

Plymouth Plymouth High School

W. A. A. Junior Chamber of Commerce
"Hey, you guy!" "Aw, I did not!"

If you hear a giggle, you are sure to find Peg around. "Laugh and the world laughs with you" is Peg's motto. She is an all-around good sport, one of our best dancers, and full of pep.

TWILA M. BARRETT
"Tillie" Intermediate

Smicksburg Smicksburg H. S.
Literary

"Tillie" has taught before, but we know that she is going to be more successful after she graduates. She can't help being successful, judging from her winning personality and the number of friendships she has made at I. S. N. S.

EMMA E. BAST
"Emmy Lou" Intermediate

Ligonier Ligonier High School
Literary

When you become great and have a handle attached to your name, "Emmy Lou," do not forget the school that started you on the road to success, nor forget your classmates. We are sure you will never do that.

ALMA MAE BAUER
"Al" Primary

Blairsville Blairsville H. S.
Literary

Alma Mae, who comes from Blairsville, is a quiet girl, not because she does not know anything to say, but because she thinks it wise to let other folk discover things for themselves. We all like Alma Mae, and wish her many happy days.

MARY JANE BAUGHMAN
"Smiles" Primary

Summerville Summerville H. S.
Literary

About our Mary we know so little. She's rather quiet and quite reserved, but she has a winning smile and happy are those who have the key to her heart.

LEONE A. BEACOM

Primary

Mt. Pleasant Mt. Pleasant H. S.
Literary

"Smile and the world smiles with you, Weep—but she never does!"

Brown eyes are not only for laughter but they signify sincerity and everlasting friendship.

GRACE BEAL

"Beal" Intermediate

Berlin Berlin High School
Literary. W. A. A. "Why the Chimes Rang"

"A sweet disposition is a wholesome confection."

"Beal's" list of friends tell us that she has acquired the art of foretelling their futures. We hope her future will be as bright as those she predicts for us.

ALICE BEATTY

"Al" Primary

Pittsburgh Langley High School
Literary

"So cheerful, gay and happy, so free from all vexation;

In fine, she's better in proof than in anticipation."

Calm, unruffled and cool is "Al."
Come what may, and go what will, she is always the same.

LILLIAN BECK

"Lil" Intermediate

Duquesne Duquesne High School
Literary

"Lil" is one of our cute little girls.
She is a real sport and a true friend to all. "Lil" not only is a good student, but she is ready for fun. Our best wishes to you, "Lil."

BLANCHE BEERMAN
"Beerman" Intermediate

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.
Literary Indiana Penn Subscription Committee

"A lass with quaint and quiet ways."

Blanche is a veritable hail fellow well met! As a class sister and schoolmate, we have needed her from the beginning.

EVELYN MAE BELL
Primary

New Kensington
New Kensington High School

Her happy-go-lucky nature, sincerity and "million-dollar" personality have made many true and lifelong friends. Here's to a most prosperous future.

RUTH M. BENDALL
"Ruthie" Intermediate

Homestead Park Homestead H. S.
Literary

One might think by her scholarly countenance that we were dealing with a studious individual. But on further examination we find that she is quite normal, the same as other martyrs that go through Indiana.

ALICE H. BENSON
"Al" Intermediate

North Braddock
North Braddock High School
Literary

*"The one worth while
Is the one who can smile
When everything goes dead wrong."*

Yes, that's our "Al"—a smile for everyone. No matter how "blue" she may feel, "Al" tries to keep everyone else from knowing about it.

DOROTHY BERG

"Dotty" Primary

Connellsville Connellsville H. S.

Literary, Society Editor, Instant, "The Hottentot", "The Youngest"

"Tempest and sunshine, but better known as Dotty."

Dotty has been one of the shining "stars" in our school life, in dramatics, her studies and in her wide circle of friends. We will never forget Dotty as "Peggy Fairfax" in the play, "The Hottentot."

MARY ELIZABETH BERGMANN

"Betty" Primary

Pittsburgh Knoxville High School

Lyric, Literary; Y. W. C. A.; W. A. A.; Basketball, W. A. A.

If you have been looking for a real girl, one who is a good earnest worker, a happy, full of fun and sincere friend, you have reached the end of your search. As for character, no words need be written for you can read it in her face. We think our "Betty" is the girl and pretty hard to beat, but the question is, "Will she always be ours?"

ELIZABETH BERKEY

"Betty" Primary

Blairsville Blairsville High School

Literary

"Betty" is no "grind," however, and, with all her high marks, she is quite popular with her classmates. She may rest assured that if she ever needs a "helping hand" at any point of life's journey, she will always find her former classmates ready to extend one.

MARY BERRY

Intermediate

Duquesne Duquesne High School
Literary

We wish good luck to you, Mary. If you do as well outside of Indiana as you have done when a student here, nothing but success and prosperity will be a fitting reward to you.

RUTH BERRY

Art

Blairsville Blairsville H. S.
Literary Society: Lyric

Happy-go-lucky, lovable, a good sport—that's our Ruth. She is a talented Art student and believes strongly in a well-rounded Education. We know that she will succeed in whatever course she decides to pursue.

MARY BIGLEY

"Bog" Junior High

Spruce Creek Tyrone High School
Literary

*"Mary, Mary, quite contrary
How do your arguments grow?
With gestures, thrusts and clever points,
And reasons set all in a row."*

But what would classes have been without the enlivening influence of our Mary? Many a recitation has been saved from mediocrity by the clash of an opinion with some one of Mary's various "complexes."

IRENE BITNER

"Rene" Primary

Mt. Pleasant Mt. Pleasant H. S.
Literary

Yes, this is "Rene" Bitner from Mt. Pleasant. She has one of those bewitching smiles, the kind that drives the blues away. One thing that you may be sure of, "Rene," is that you have the absolute support of your friends and the good will of your acquaintances.

RUTH BITTNER

"Bitt" Music

Hooversville Hooversville H. S.
Lyric: Band; Supervisor's Orchestra

"A bobbed-haired handit and loved by all."

"Bitty" day-dreams, day-dreams, day-dreams,
Of the Sahara, its camels and sand,
But the chief—the Ahmed Ben "Hasson"
Has captured her heart and her hand.

KATHRYN BLOOMFIELD

"Kitty" Commercial

Juniata Juniata High School
Vesper Choir

So small, so neat, so very petite. The dearest of dears! Kitty is a gracious little girl. When we see Kitty, we think of the fair little New England maids. She makes up in brains what she lacks in stature. Poor Kathryn Annie needs a "Baby Ben" so she will get to class on time. Who would ever think that "Little Kitty" could be so mischievous? She is just a "cute little trick."

FAY BONNER

Primary

Indiana Indiana High School
Literary

*"Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt,
And every grin, so merry, draws one out."*

The above saying surely pertains to our diminutive, humorous friend, Fay. She is always genial, happy and contented, and her disposition doesn't even change when it comes to lessons. She just takes to it like a duck in swimmin'.

ALBERTUS BOOZER

"Bertie" Primary

Literary

As a student of good behavior, she leads all. She is one of our small girls but she is big enough in heart to retain the many friends which are hers.

DOROTHY BRADEN

"Dot" Commercial

Allentown Allentown High School
Lyric; Junior Chamber of Commerce;
Y. W. C. A.
"Small and adorable."

I wonder why "Dot" is so interested in the newspaper business and who sends her those weekly boxes of candy? "Dot" is one of our popular maidens who keeps the telephone girl busy with a "special" every day; twice on Sunday. "Dot" is always smiling. As "Jackie Coogan" she is as good as the original.

ELIZABETH T. BROWN

"Betty" Intermediate

Altoona Altoona High School
Literary

"Betty" is a friend worth having and one for whom we wish the greatest success and happiness.

A full, rich nature free to trust
Faithful and also very just,
Thoughtful and earnest, prompt to act

And makes each generous thought a fact.

EMMA BROGAN

Literary

How we love her golden hair
And eyes of blue—none better!
But some one thinks so other than we,
For he tells her in his letters.

WILLIAM BUSH

"Bulet" Commercial

Llewellyn

Branch Township High School

Baseball, Football, Glee Club, Jr. Chamber of Commerce, Y. M. C. A.; Omega Chi Fraternity

Bill likes exercise; almost every night he walks out to the reservoir. Now I wonder why? Bill could convince the South Islanders to buy fur coats for he seems to think it necessary to go "North" every evening after dinner. Bill always knows what he is talking about in law except when he gets verbal promises to marry confused with delivering hay. He likes the girls but hates to say so. He can blush beautifully and does it often.

WILHELMINA BUNTIN

"Willy" Primary

Ernest Indiana High School

This is "Willy," one of our day students. She has been with us two years and is loved by everyone because of her pleasing disposition. The best wishes of the class of 1926 go with you, "Willy."

*"So much grace, so much charm
Yet, sure to be a good school marm."*

The world has a prominent place for her. Her hobbies are—good looking clothes, tennis and Glenn.

VIRGINIA BLYTHE

"Ginny" Primary

McKeesport McKeesport H. S.

"A girl with a mile of smiles."

Here's to our "Ginny," a live wire in the electrical system of fourth floor's fun. She really can be serious if she wishes, but we are glad that she doesn't do much wishing, for she's so delightful and altogether lovable when she is jolly and gay.

EVELYN B. CESSNA

"Cess" Primary

Bedford Bedford High School
Literary

*"How can I paint thee as thou art?
So fair in face, so warm in heart."*

To know "Cess" is to love her, for who can resist her charming personality? Summing it all up, "Cess" is a typical modern American girl.

MARY E. COLEMAN

"Coley" Intermediate

Class of Music Department

Everyone loves "Ginny." She'll be a charming teacher. In later years, when thinking of "Ginny," we will say:

Old Mother "Hubbard"
Went to the cupboard
To get her dear "Hubbard" a tire,
But when she got there
She found that she didn't dare
Because it was covered with mire.

"Judy's" charming personality, combined with a pleasing appearance and ever-ready cheerfulness, and a sweet disposition, makes her one of the most loved girls in the class.

JEAN CRAIG COREY

Primary

McKeesport McKeesport H. S.
Literary, Lyric

Studios—that's Jean. When it comes to reciting she is hard to beat, but she is not always going to be a student. Some day she is going to change her name from one that begins with "C" to another one that begins with "C." There is one thing Jean does not believe in and that is wearing her glasses to Hygiene classes. For everyone she has a sunny smile and a kind word.

NELL CAMPBELL

"Nellie" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown High School
Literary, Lyric

"Need is, need was, need ever shall be,

For her and such as she."

"Nellie" has a way about her that you just can't resist. When you become her friend you have a secure feeling—as if you felt that at last you had found a real friend.

VIVIAN CARTWRIGHT

"Vie" Junior High

Commodor Green Township H. S.
Sci III; Literary; Y. W. C. A.

"Vivian," what does it mean? According to Webster it means lively—but to us it means a teacher's dignity, a student's air and a conscientious worker who likes to play fair.

MARGARET ELLEN CASSELLS

"Cassells" Primary

She's lovable, dependable,
And kind to everyone.

ELIZABETH BELLE CLAWSON

"Betty" Primary

Josephine Josephine H. S.
Lyric, Vice President, Sci III

Remember the little girl who used to hunt books for us in the library? Always smiling and obliging, she moved about among the reading tables like a ray of sunshine astray in "Bookland." These halls will be darker for her going, and we know that the scene of her future triumphs will be the brighter, whether it be a schoolroom in Josephine, Pa., or the kitchen of a cozy little home in Penn Run.

VIVIAN E. CHUTE

GRACE ALBERT COST

"Gracie Gracious" Music

Indiana Indiana High School
Literary Band, Supervisor's Orchestra,
Normal Orchestra, Vesper Chord Lyric

"Have you seen my sweetheart?"
(Which one?) That is a common question heard in the Conservatory always coming from the lips of our Grace. Nevertheless she is a dear girl and "to know her is to love her" as we discovered early in our first year in Indiana. Her success in the future is an assured fact.

KATHERINE COST

"Katy" Primary

Indiana Indiana High School

"Katy" is a very studious member of our class. She is very enthusiastic about everything she undertakes and accomplishes much. Her winning personality and mirthful laughter inspires everyone about her. She takes genuine pleasure in doing little favors that one less thoughtful would overlook.

MILDRED COTTOM

"Jane" Primary

NINA ELIZABETH BADER

"Nina" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown High School

Vesper Choir; W. A. A.; Literary

At times Nina is the kind of girl in describing whom one would use words such as conscientious, hardworking, earnest, studious, and many other epithets commonly employed in describing the "dear fellow student" who is a grind. These qualities are well worth having, and we give Nina credit for possessing them—but when she dances "Irish Jig" or the "Charleston" in her untimable way, we know that, after all, she is a real girl in every sense of the word, with her share of pep and goodly sense of humor.

MARIAN E. COLLEY

"Marney" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

Literary

Many striking features are "Marney's"—she is good looking, a fine dancer, and a studious student. I fear her days as a teacher are numbered for "Marney" is an expert cook, I hear.

MARGARET BRADLEY

"Peg" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

"Peg" is another of our attractive seniors. A short, black-haired and dark-eyed girl. She is a good dancer, and one who is always in for a good time. Teaching kindergarten seems to be just the right thing for her to do.

ROSEMARY ECK

"Eckie" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

Literary

Rosemary has a permanent hold on our affections as a smiling, fun-loving girl and a loyal friend. Without a doubt, she is destined to be a teacher having all the requisites for that profession, including a wonderful patience. However, lessons don't seem to worry her much; in fact, nothing seems to ruffle her composure.

"Dip" is another one of our gay crowd. What would we do without her is the question? If you are going to work for Mr. Hill, Polly, you had better learn to write with your right hand. Pauline just came to us this year, but we surely like her lots. Always remember and keep in mind, that girls like "Dip" are hard to find.

BERTHA L. DOAK

"Bert" Primary

Latrobe Latrobe High School
Literary: W. A. A.

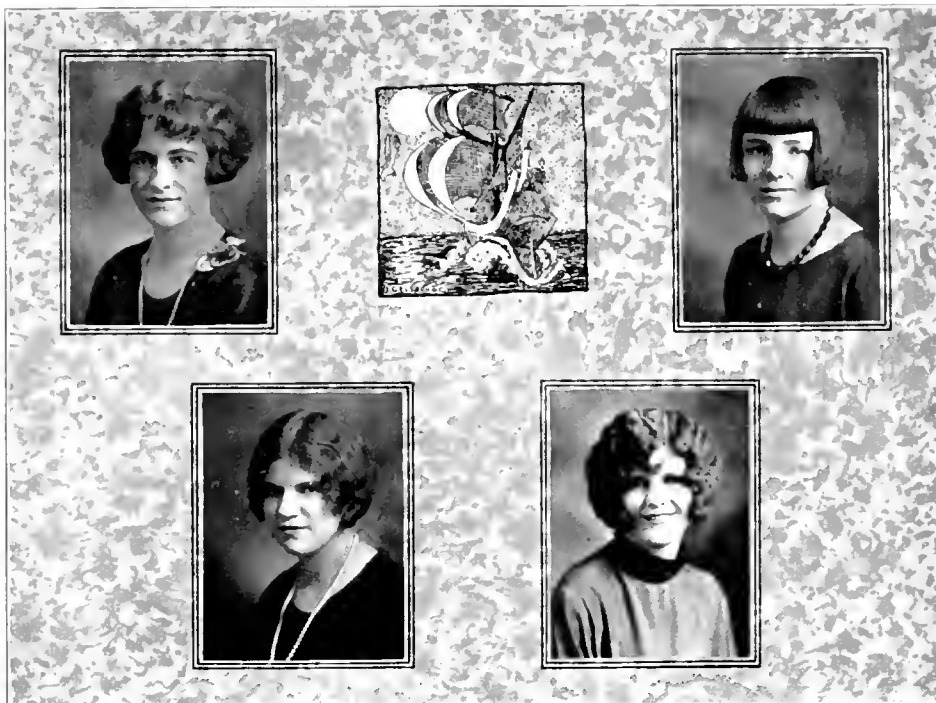

"Still waters run deep." This certainly holds true with Bertha, for one is very often surprised at her gaiety and wit, contrary to her appearance which is that of a quiet demure little girl. She is one of our studious girls, but does she devote all of her time to study? Ask any of the girls, and they will tell that she can forget her studies and join in with all the fun and good times. She is a friend worth having.

HELEN DIXON

A good student, quiet, courteous and unassuming, "Chris" has won a host of friends who wish her the best in the affairs of the hearth and of the world.

ANASTASIA R. DOYLE

"Tates" Intermediate

Clairton Clairton High School
Literary

"The world delights in sunny people."

"Tates" keeps her many friends by following this ancient advise: To preserve a friend, three things are required—to honor him present, praise him absent, and assist him in his difficulties.

MARGARET DUITCH

"Peg"

Leetsdale Allegheny High School

"Beautiful Peg." Peg is liked by everyone. She smiles enough to keep a corporation instead of a shop. She is one of the most popular members of the class of '26. Vivacious, jolly, charming—these are Peggie's characteristics. Peggie's idea of something to do is to keep one's nose powdered.

LUCILLE DRUMMOND

"Luc" Primary

Did you ever see the time when "Reggie" wasn't Ernest? Puns are taboo, we know, but ours is such an appropriate one that we hope it will be condoned. "Ernest" suggests "enthusiasm," and that trait, also, is a characteristic of this small girl who impresses her associates—just at first—as being rather quiet and diffident. Though sudden and unexpected, her enthusiasms are based on conviction, and are, therefore, arresting.

Back"

You've heard of all kinds of chains but here is a new one. The first link is her smile, the next is her beauty, the next her disposition, another her cheery word; then, too, the links of earnest work, high ideals, and dependability. What fairer jewel could it hold than Marie?

ESTELLA FINN

"Finnie" Primary

Mapleton Depot

Mount Union High School

Varsity Basketball; Lyric; Literary

"Fin" always knows the latest slang, and uses it at the psychological moment. We hope she wins in the game of life, and she will if she plays it as she plays basketball.

ANNA JANE FISCUS

"Janey" Intermediate

Apollo Apollo High School

Literary

How any one could be so pretty, so jovial, so sweet, and still be such a good dancer as Janey, is a mystery to all of us. If she captivates her pupils as she has captivated us, we predict success for her as a school-marm.

LENA FITZGERALD

"Katie" Primary

Manorville Ford City High School

*"Not mighty deeds make up the sum of happiness below,
But little acts of kindness which anyone may show."*

That is our Katie.

SARA ELIZABETH FITZSIMONS

"Betts" Intermediate

Connellsville Connellsville H. S.

Literary; W. A. A.

*A maiden never bold
To whom we wish all
That life can hold.*

Due to Sara's quietness we have never been able to find out many of her secrets, but, of course, she has them.

ANNA MARY FLANAGAN

"Ann" Intermediate

Monessen Monessen H. S.

Literary

*Although she's small
She's very sweet
And Anna's a girl
That's hard to beat.*

She belongs to the "Help Others Club," and is so modest about it all.

MYRA FLEGAL

"Louie" Primary

Morrisdale H. S.

Literary

An alert, busy girl is our "Louie" having time for work and play. We know she will succeed in anything she will undertake.

FANNY LORENE FLEMING

"Fann" Intermediate

Indiana

Indiana High School

"Fanny" is jolly and pleasant,
She does her work with a will;
Wherever she's needed she's present;
Hard places she's ready to fill.

EDYTH E. FORSYTH

"Edie" Primary

Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh H. S.

Literary

Worry not about difficulties when Edyth is near,
She is ready to help you if you are in fear.
She has ambition, courage and pluck.
And she'll never be as we sometime say "out-of-luck."
She has big brown eyes and shining black hair.
But she's never proud of being so fair.

KATHRYN SMITH FORSYTHE

"Kitty" Primary

Washington

Connellsville H. S.

President, Y. W. C. A.; Literary

"Kitty" is a winsome miss
Who is always ready for work or play.
She is active in "Y" and full of fun,
But from mice she is always sure to run.

NANCY BLANCHE FOX

"Nance" Primary
New Stanton Youngwood H. S.

Literary
Quiet, unassuming, yet clever,
Happy, helpful and bright,
Very seldom in arguments
But always for the right.

CHARLOTTE MAE FOX

"Foxy" Primary
Mt. Pleasant Mt. Pleasant H. S.

Whenever a pleasant voice we hear,
Everyone knows a friend is near;
For Charlotte is a friend sincere,
Who is willing to help and cheer.

OLA FOX

"Foxy" Primary
New Stanton Youngwood H. S.

Always laughing,
Always gay,
Carefree, happy,
That's her way.

Sweet as a narcissus,
Pure as a lily,
Our Ola could never
Be foolish or silly.

A star in tennis,
A sport all around,
None better than Ola
Could ever be found.

EMMA MARY FREDO

"Freedom" Intermediate Hastings Hastings High School

Literary
Emma's virtues:

No bluffing, no guile,
Always sincere, an omnipresent smile.
No one can forget Emma on account of her eyes and her wit. Her eyes are black—the unforgettable kind—and Emma always sincere, acts as a tonic for us by telling us just what she thinks in that witty way of her's for which we love her all the more.

BETTY LOUISE FRIED

"Betty"

McKeesport McKeesport High School
Literary

"A girl with a smile is a girl worth while."

Betty is a quiet unassuming girl, but when we hear from her, we always know that she has something worth saying. She is a good-natured and sweet lass, and everyone who knows her is proud to be her friend.

HELEN FUNK

Commercial

Barnsboro Barnsboro High School
Literary, Junior Chamber of Commerce;
Secretary Senior Commercial Class

Helen has been around in the world—"Punxy." When we first see Helen, we notice her pretty brown eyes and her smile. Who could resist loving a girl with such a sweet personality? She is an all-around sport, cultured and refined.

ADELA GALLAGHER

"Del" Primary

Latrobe Latrobe High School
Literary

A girl who's ever sweet,
A smile for all she may meet,
A good word here, a good word there,
And kind deeds she does not spare.
Who is she—do tell?
Well, all right, she's "Del!"

JANE FRISHEE GANS

"Fris" Intermediate

Connellsville Ames High School
Literary

"As good to be out of the world as out of fashion."

"Fris" is one of those whom you are always delighted to see. She is a true friend and good sport. Her many, many friends prove that she is one of our most likeable seniors.

ALFREDA GARDNER

"Freda" Primary

Youngwood Youngwood High School
Literary: W. A. A.

Alfreda—tall and dark and quiet, with merry brown eyes and an infectious smile. Though she gives the impression of dignity and aloofness, I am inclined to think she can break a rule with the best of us.

LUZERNA GARSON

"Lern" Primary

Indiana Indiana High School
Literary

*Speech is silver, silence is golden
But Lern prefers silver—evidently.*

"Lern" is doubly attractive; she is pleasing in both looks and disposition.

MARGARET JANE GEE

"Peg" Primary

Pep! Vim! Oodles of fun,
A smile—a laugh—
And away for a run!
There's no room for a frown,
Or time for a tear
For Betty—our Betty—is here.

MARGARET GIESLAR

"Peg" Intermediate
Brackenridge Torentum H. S.
"As merry as the day is long."

We wish her the best of success in whatever she undertakes. Since "Peg" has come here she has made many friends who are always cheered when they hear her very merry and friendly "hello" with which she salutes all of her inner circle.

ALICE GILL

"Al" Commercial
Sharon Sharon High School
Junior Chamber of Commerce; Secretary Literary Society; Associate Editor In-stanto; Lyric

"Good-nite, Al."

She is one of the inseparable. Alice, Alice, what did you do? Stole all our hearts and "Chet's", too? She has earned all the credits that are possible in groveology. Alice is feminine, sophisticated and perfectly lovely. We are sure she will soon know all the "big" words Mr. Webb knows if she keeps on. "Al" has a "way" with her.

LUCY MARGARET GILCHRIST

Kelly Station Kelly Station H. S.

Always a smile for everyone she meets—that's our Lucy.

"For they who think of others most,
Are the happiest folks that live."

We wish that there were a lot more Lucys.

MARGUERITE GILLIS

"Irish" Commercial
Sayre Sayre High School

Chairman, Invitation Committee, Senior Prom; Lyric; Literary; Junior Chamber of Commerce

Marguerite and Alice remind us of "The Gold Dust Twins." We predict a very bright future for Marguerite as an opera singer. She has lots of smiles and beautiful dimples. "Life is a 'Riddle,'" says Irish. She is fond of apples, just one, however.

HELEN KATHARINE GLASSFORD
Intermediate

Indiana Indiana High School

With a sweet and charming disposition, she goes her quiet way.

SARA LOUISE GORDON
"Sally" Intermediate

Gary, Ind. Crafton High School
Literary

Because of her glossy black hair and perfect wave, some think she is Spanish, some Italian, but no matter what she is, everyone agrees that "Sally" is an exceptional girl. There is an unassuming dignity of deed and manner about Sally. She is ambitious and very energetic. She intends to teach next year, but we occasionally have our doubts as to whether or not she will carry out her plans.

HARRIET L. GOULD
Intermediate

Dormont Dormont High School
Vice President of Senior Class

Dark hair, dark laughing eyes, a sweet smile and a pleasant disposition, a winning way and a charming personality—Harriet.

MARGARET JANE GOWERN
"Peggy" Primary
Canonsburg Canonsburg High School
Literary

Well, Peggy, Indiana will surely miss you when you leave. All of us will think of you as good-looking, joyful, and careful. But, Peggy, one thing—be careful of that "wee" bit of Irish temper which is apt to appear at times, however, that makes you all the more attractive.

RUTH E. GREENE

Primary

Washington Washington High School

"Here's to the gayest of the gay!"

At last, here's Ruth. She fills her office capably, too, for she immediately arrests all signs of melancholy as soon as they make their appearances. She has a knack of keeping "things going."

EDNA GAIL GRIMM

"Eddie" Intermediate

Pitcairn Pitcairn High School

Literary, W. A. A.

Our "Eddie" went to Normal School,
And she was wondrous wise;
Whenever she saw a lesson book,
She opened wide her eyes.

So now she is a graduate—
We wish her much success,
In all her work of teaching
May she find great happiness.

PRISCILLA NORTON GRISWOLD

"Pris" Primary

Eric Eric Central High

Literary

"Pris," with her charming personality and sweet disposition, will long be remembered by her many friends. We wish her happiness and success.

GERTRUDE GROSSMAN

"Pete" Primary

Her good disposition is more valuable than gold. To know Gertie is to love her. As she goes out into life she carries with her "heaps of love" from everyone.

LUCILLE ANN GUNNERSON

"Cil" Commercial

Kane Kane High School
Literary: "Clarence"; Junior Chamber of Commerce

"Cil" is that good-looking blonde in the Commercial class. Can you picture Cil an old-maid school teacher? Why is Cil interested in Boston Tech? Is it "Mail" or "Male" that Cil is interested in? She is the flapper of the class.

DOROTHY VIRGINIA HAHN

"Dot" Primary

Homestead Homestead H. S.
Literary: "The Passing of the Third

Can she tickle the ivories?
Well, I guess she can't be beat!
When she begins to play,
We can't control our feet!

ROMA HAINES

Commercial

Tampa, Fla. Norwin High School
Varsity Hockey; Treasurer Junior Chamber of Commerce; Editor-in-Chief, Instano

Pep!—nothing else but!

Roma is our mighty Editor-in-Chief. After all, Roma, you won't be proof-reading all your life, at least this kind of "proof-reading." We're all proud of our Florida classmate, who tells us she just loves the South—maybe for more reasons than one. Moonlight, Tampa Bay and Roma! Sounds like "Roma-nee" doesn't it?

LOIS EVELYN HAMMER

"Ev" Intermediate

Swissvale Swissvale High School
Literary

*"She's a tiny wee,
Handsome see,
Darling wee thing."*

Pretty, petite, smiling and curly headed. Can you imagine a more charming combination?

CATHERINE GRAMBLING

"Katie" Intermediate

Johnstown Dale Borough H. S.
Literary; W. A. A.

"Katie," it will be a shock to us if you do not come out on top. Whatever your work shall be, we feel confident that you will do your utmost and consequently do better than the majority.

AGNES MARIE HARTNETT

"Ag" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.
Literary

"Ag" has quite the dual personality—when studies call, she's studious—but when it's "playtime," she's the jester of the crowd. "Ag" is greatly envied by many because of her eyes—those blue eyes—and also her Irish wit. We wish you all of the success in the world, "Ag," but as a teacher? Well, guess!

KATHRYN HEINZE

"K" Intermediate

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

"K" is a good student, a good dresser, a good talker, and an all-around good sport. We are sure that with all her "good" habits she will make out well in the world.

LILLIAN HERSHBERGER

"Hershey" Primary

Johnstown Johnstown H. S.

"The thing that goes the farthest
Toward making life worth while,
That costs the least but means the most
Is just a pleasant smile."

GERTRUDE HANDLER

"Gert" Junior High

Indiana Indiana High School

W. A. A.; Literary

*Gertrude! Ah! English!
Oh! those wonderful lines!
When we speak of a genius,
She's not far behind.*

She was one of our genius in composition class, and we all prophesy—not as sages and prophets of old, but as Junior High Students—that Gertrude will be one rip, roaring success.

JANE HANNA

"Janer" Primary

New Kensington New Kensington H. S.

Literary; W. A. A.; Y. W. C. A.

Jane is quiet till her work is done,
Then she's in for all kinds of fun.

We were all glad to have Jane as one of the members of the class. She has a very pleasing manner and is liked by all of us. We wish her all kinds of luck while teaching young hopefuls the "Three R's."

BARBARA HARKLEROAD

"Barb" Art

Indiana Indiana H. S.

Art Editor, Instano; Literary

*"Little drops of water,
Little daubs of paint,
Makes the beautiful pictures,
That our Barbara can paint."*

If you doubt this, just look through the pages of our dear old INSTANO and see what a few strokes of the pen mixed with a great talent can do. It is yet to be seen what "two" great talents can accomplish. I wonder who the second artist is?

ANNA HARDY

"Anne" Primary

Scottdale Scottdale H. S.

Anna Hardy so sweet
Always with a smile we meet.
When we see her coming into class,
She has a smile for every lad and lass.

To hear her merry laugh is to know something is doing. Talkative and lively, that you are, "Anne."

RUTH NAOMI HARRER
"Roose" Intermediate

Mt. Pleasant Mt. Pleasant H. S.
 Ready for work, ready for play,
 Ruth will surely succeed some day,
 She's gay and she's happy, a friend of Literary; W. A. A.; Basketball

*"This is the lass whom we call Thelma,
And she has won our right good will."*

Thelma spreads sunshine everywhere she goes—that is why she will never be forgotten by us. She is always laughing and gay.

MARGARET HELWIG
"Peggy" Primary
 Paxinos Shamokin H. S.
 Literary

Peggy is short
 And always neat.
 If one knows her,
 It's really a treat.
 "Peg" seems to be quiet—but appearances — we have mentioned them many, many times.

ANNA CHRISTINE HEMPEL
 Wilkinsburg North Braddock H. S.
 Literary Primary

"Ann"
 Anna is full of gurgling, bubbling laughter, the laughter of keen enjoyment and pleasure or deep appreciation of life.
 Any time you hear a rippling silvery laugh you may be sure Ann is somewhere near, perhaps just around the corner.
 Even when you cannot hear her laugh you can see the fun in her twinkling blue eyes. Her nickname should be not "Ann", but "Bit of Sunshine"

MILDRED HIGGINSON
"Mid" Primary
 Leechburg Leechburg H. S.

Who listens once will listen twice,
 Her heart, to be sure, is not of ice.
 Here is kind of girl one is glad to

With this class goes one of the most intelligent, diligent, hard-working men Indiana ever had. He has proved that he can do two things at one time and do them both well. He rates high in classes, and has been our "star" waiter for some time. Everyone who knows "Jim" likes him. "Fair play and efficiency" is his motto; science his hobby; and he has developed a keen taste for "Art". We'll miss you, Jim. Goodbye, good luck, we know that you will succeed.

HULDA M. KELLY

one of her sweet smiles. She just looks at you and smiles and your heart is lost.

JUNE KERR

"June" Primary
Johnstown Westmont H. S.
Literary, Hockey, W. A. A.

"None know her but to love her."

June—tall, stately and dignified, makes a favorable impression wherever she goes. Everyone has faults and of these, one fault is usually predominant. The greatest fault we can find with June is that she has so few. She is veritable personification of good fellowship.

LILLIAN LAURA KERR

"Lil" Primary

Literary, W. A. A.

"A merry heart goes all the day."

Lillian has a way with her;
She's blonde and small and gay.
And bashful with the gentlemen (?)
For so I've heard her say.
She has that "meet me later" look!
She loves her pa and ma.
But more than all the rest of things
Lillian adores someone at Dormont.

"Boad" is one of our rare good sports who is always ready for a good time and is just as carefree as her noted waves which are never allowed to roll or be out of place. As for her future success we all know "Boad" will be a "shero" in the fight.

MARY DORCAS PICKLES
"Pickles" Commercial
 Mineral Springs Clearfield H. S.
 Lyric, Literary: Y. W. C. A.;
 Junior Chamber of Commerce

She is one of the "57"—but not canned—yet! Sweet Pickles! We just knew she shouldn't have taken that week-end trip home. "Pickles" are a sign of love—here's hoping that Mary hasn't chosen a sour one.

KATHRYN M. PILGRIM

Marion has fun most everywhere,
But mostly while at school,
She gets her lessons very well,
And yet has time to fool.

HELEN LEONA RANKIN

Commercial
Butler Butler H. S.
Literary; Corresponding Secretary, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Lyric

"Tall, slender and studious."

Helen's interest is not all concerned in her work, but also down the "Alley." We wonder why she likes to use the telephone every evening before dinner?

MARY MARGARET PRITCHARD

No matter where fate may carry you,
Mary Margaret, our hearts are with you and we wish you much success and good fortune.

ALICE L. REED

"Al" Primary
Leechburg Allegheny Twp. H. S.
Literary: W. A. A.; Lyric

*"Quick and lively, happy and gay,
A smile for all who come her way."*

We know that she will succeed and expect to hear great things from her in the near future.

HELEN REESER

"Billie" Primary
Windber Windber H. S.

"Billie's" smiles come from the bottom of her heart, and all the way up through her eyes because she thinks them more contagious, and she loves to see her cheerfulness spread. Smiles are very catching, especially "Billie's." We find her good in all scholastic enterprises and full of spirit in athletics. Girls like "Billie" go to make up a jolly class.

MAE REESER

Primary
Windber Windber H. S.
Literary

*"Good to look upon, better to know,
With many a friend and never a foe."*

Mae is a brown-eyed, black-haired girl with a broad smile and a winning way. No wonder we like her.

Lyric; Literary; Y. W. C. A.

"A smile for a cure and a smile for a woe, You'll never find 'Scrubby's' spirit low."

Who couldn't love this vivacious maiden with her wisdom and her love for pleasure? Yes, many are the victims of her charm, for "Scrubby" always has a pleasing smile and a cheerful word for everyone. But that is not all—she has ability along many lines and is a very active and true member of the class. One can easily see by her interest in her work that she will be well suited for the profession she has chosen.

The Passing Show of 1926

Time

Act I. Yesterday

Act II. Today

Act III. Tomorrow

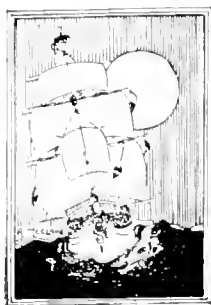

EARLY in the fall of 1924 a new group of actors made their initial appearance on the campus of Indiana. They were dazzled by the prismatic rays overarching their own splendor and perfection. Their undaunted confidence in their ability prepared them "to take down the house." However, the meager frugality of the spectators' applause somewhat subdued their enthusiasm, and forced them into the realism that laurels must be merited. With renewed zeal and indomitable spirit they determined to stay until the final curtain; so that now you see us about to end the last of the second act, and we bid you a cordial welcome to remain for the finale.

During Act I, we encountered bitter skirmishes with the upper-classmen, from which we emerged proudly triumphant when victory was our lot; and humbly noble when we were compelled to taste the meeker fruits of defeat. As the play progressed, a number of our troupe became Varsity letter men; several earned distinction in dramatics and others attained laurels in the art, science and musical circles.

In Act II we continued with greater animation and welcomed the unwise and unwary Juniors of 1925-26 with solemn and appropriate ceremonies. During this act, our members became more proficient in their chosen activities as manifested by our large representation on the gridiron, court, track, diamond, stage, musical and debating platform.

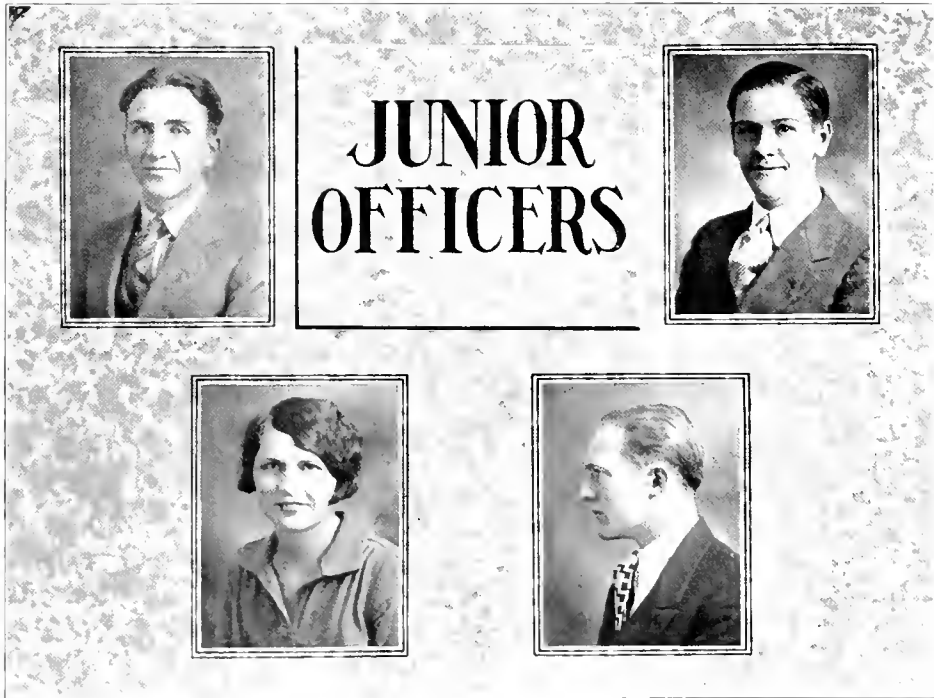

To Act III, the climax of our ability, we have purposed to dedicate our best and most faithful service. And as we stand on the threshold of the last and final act in the intensity of our devotion, we are resolved that to it we shall give even greater things and achieve greater successes than in the past; and in so doing bring increased renown to Indiana, our halcyon and cherished Alma Mater.

CAME many energetic voyagers from far and near to establish homes and seek the priceless treasure of learning.

What the Clock Saw

"MR. CLOCK, what a dreary building this is; however did you withstand forty years in this dark lonely hall?" questioned the new Thermometer of his close companion, the School Clock.

"Dreary building!" exclaimed the old time piece. "Just wait until fifteen minutes 'till eight. Then at the close of the twenty-four hours you may give me your opinion. My little friend, Thermometer, here is the beginning of your school career. These restless youths coming down the hall are the students of I. S. N. S. They make it buzz from early in the morning until ten at night." Here the Clock's conversation was hushed by several Juniors passing by.

"Well, this is the last day of the month so let's hurry to Chapel. Do you think your name will be read for a clean record? I am afraid mine won't be."

"Mine ought to be, I work every night from seven until wild hour bell, yet I'm never finished," answered the second member of the group.

"I wonder if the mail truck is in? I received five yesterday and answered every one last night. I'm afraid I won't get through but I work hard every night, and never waste a minute." With this the crowd moved on.

"I guess these girls considered writing letters hard work," exclaimed the Thermometer. "Who are those husky fellows who just passed?"

"They," said the Clock proudly, "are the Junior athletes, some starring in football while others made a record for their class in basketball."

"Those girls who are in such a hurry seem to make a merry trio," sighed the Thermometer.

"Yes, they are coming from the Junior class meeting. I heard one of them say the officers for the year were elected."

"My dear friend, Thermometer," you should have been here the first week of school. The poor Juniors were a sad and forlorn crowd. Some thought they would go to the movies or a dance at night to break the monotony, while others wanted to know when their gentlemen friends could call and take them car-riding. But Miss Stewart said, 'No, unless parents are along.' And oh, my the sighing this called forth."

The Thermometer—"What do the Juniors have during the year?"

"They have a Prom. Everyone is happy and gay. You will enjoy this night more than any other for it is the biggest night in the year for them," said the Clock.

"Thanks, Mr. Clock, you have been very patient in giving me information about this peppy Junior Class. I think I'll rest until tomorrow when I can again watch for the Juniors."

Young Womens' Christian Association

NDER the influence of Miss Leonard, the Young Women's Christian Association was organized in 1898, and has grown in achievement and progress each year.

The aim and guiding spirit of the Y. W. C. A. under its present administration has been service. The "Little Sister" plan was carried out by writing to the new girls during the summer months, and in the trying first days of school, by welcoming all newcomers and by being helpful and of service in many ways.

A "Get Acquainted Party" was given in Recreation Hall, and during the month of October, the Y. W. C. A. entertained all the girls by a series of informal Teas, given in the Y. W. C. A. Room. Each Wednesday evening the Y. W. C. A. met for its regular meeting. Many interesting discussions on questions vital to the girls as Normal School students took place.

Surely, everyone will remember the sandwiches and eskimo pies, which were sold from time to time to increase the funds. With the aid of these funds, Indiana's Y. W. C. A. was represented last June at Eagles Mere by Leah Collins and Kathryn Forsythe; and in October at the Conference of the Western Eagles Mere Division at Edinboro Normal by the following: Hilda Furness, Josephine Gorman, Lillian McCreary and Aileen McClain.

Womens' Athletic Association

THE W. A. A. is one of the most active organizations in the school. Each year it increases in membership and popularity. No special campaign for membership was carried out this year. The girls joined voluntarily because they were interested in some phase of the athletic program. This has resulted in a fine quality of membership.

The Athletic Association encourages all types of girls' sports. The year opened with the Fall Tennis Tournament sponsored entirely by the W. A. A. and under the direction of Miss Apple. Then came soccer and swimming under the supervision of Miss Reiss. At the same time many girls were earning points by hiking and horseback riding. After Christmas basketball practice began with a lively squad of forty girls from whom were organized several teams, the most noted being the "Dynamite Tossers" or T. N. T. The Basketball season was very successful with many thanks to the coach, Miss Mabel Apple, and to the fine cooperation of the girls.

The Bowling team also deserves much credit for their skill since bowling is a new sport for most of the W. A. A. girls. The athletic program for the year ended with the Spring Tennis Tournament and a most interesting track meet.

Just a word about the W. A. A. point system. For every sport that a girl goes into, that is, hockey, soccer, basketball, bowling, swimming, tennis, horseback riding, long ball, baseball, or track, she is awarded so many points according to the hours of participation. A hundred points are required to win an "I", and it is so arranged that no member can acquire all of these points by one sport. Even by taking part in all sports it is very difficult to earn the "I" in one year. This makes for an all-around athlete.

The W. A. A. officers have been most efficient. Besides working in the organization they have entered into all the sports on the athletic program. Many thanks for the successful year, may be given to the W. A. A. faculty advisor, Miss Reiss, and also to the entire Athletic Council of I. S. N. S. for their whole-hearted cooperation.

THE Junior Chamber of Commerce composed of the three years of commercial students renewed their membership for 1925-26 one hundred per cent. The Club was organized during the term 1924-25 for the purpose of associating the classes into a single group that could work together, promoting educational debates, social activities, the Inter-County Commercial Contest, and other beneficial activities to the student body. In the latter part of September, 1925, the Second Vice-President, Mr. Alfred Schimmel, opened the meeting for the nomination of new officers for the ensuing year. The voting resulted in the election of Mr. Paul Turse, Senior, as President of the Club.

The regular meetings are held once a month at which time an educational program is given. We were fortunate in having a talk by Dr. John A. H. Keith on the "Qualifications of a Teacher," at the December meeting. Several discussions on both local and national significance have been heard. A most interesting discussion, open floor permitted, featured the January assembly. It was on the much-talked-of World Court.

The Inter-County Contest for 1926 which is promoted, conducted and financed by the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held in May with counties representing all of Pennsylvania entering contestants.

A delightful social affair, the Commercial-Tea Dansant, conducted under the auspices of this organization is given annually as a May-time event. Each member participates in making a success of the undertaking. The second-year girls perform the honors as hostesses of the faculty, seniors and other guests. Their daintily hued, fluffy dresses and the artistic placement and arrangement of their tables and tea service makes an appropriate background for one of the pleasant delicately beautiful occasions in the scholastic year.

It is hardly necessary to say that this is one of the most important organizations of the school. The function of The Indiana Penn is to collect material and publish the monthly paper. This paper really evolved from a small publication known as The Tell-Tale Times, which originated from the efforts of several men students two years ago.

The semester of this year the paper has been featuring some one thing each issue. The March issue was left in charge of a stack of men with Gilmore Rothrock as Editor-in-Chief. The April issue will feature the result of a beauty and popularity contest among the girls, and the May issue will include the Commencement activities.

Home Economics

THE State Council of Education granted our Home Economics Department a four-year vocational course. We began on the four-year curriculum in September, 1925. It is the first department in the Indiana State Normal School to be given this privilege.

Our Practice House was redecorated this summer. It is a beautiful and well-furnished home for the senior Home Economics students who live there and practice the many important principles which are fundamental to the upkeep of a home, and to the healthful and successful family life.

Early in September the resident seniors at the Practice House entertained informally the new students in the department, the Home Economics faculty, and other seniors.

In November the annual clothing exhibit attracted many interested visitors. The unusual display of millinery, applied arts, and costumes were enthusiastically inspected and praised. A greater interest was manifested this year by the large number of callers.

We gave a very pretty Christmas party to the children of the Willard Home on Sunday afternoon, December 20. The big living room at the Willard Home was decorated in the cheerful Christmas colors. At one end of the room a large and beautifully trimmed tree stood, and under it the girls heaped presents and a large basket of fruits, candy, and nuts for the children. The enthusiasm was greatly increased when old Santa Claus appeared and gave each child a toy from the tree. Following the singing of Christmas carols the children eagerly took part in the games which lasted the remainder of the afternoon.

We are proud of our department. Our new curriculum has aroused new interest which gives promise of rapid growth in the next few years.

These Things I Have Loved

HE odor of bread toasting to golden brown, the aroma of coffee "perking" to amber clearness in early morning—the freshness of the air as one crossed the front porch at late dawn for the milk—orange flowers among green ferns in a low bowl on the table—the orderliness of our house—the delicious spotlessness of the little white kitchen—the gloss of varnished floors bordering soft-toned rugs—the cabinet of spicy wood containing the gleaming glassware—the table laid for a formal dinner—the crisp linen, shining silver, tall gold-rimmed goblets with cracked ice floating in the water—a color scheme of orange, of rose, or yellow realized by flowers, favors and place cards—tempting salads with touches of color, contained in crisp lettuce cups, almost too artistic to disturb—lump sugar in a bowl which one, when hostess, carefully lifted out with tongs, after having asked one's guests if they cared for it in tea or coffee—the pleasurable sense of possession as one locked doors and turned out lights when playing the role of head housekeeper—the glow of the fireplace when lit—the radiance of the lamp on the table by the front window, as one saw its welcoming beams shining out into the darkness lighting us on our way from an evening at the library.

These things I have loved and will associate in memory with the words Practice House.

The Nature Study Club

WHO ARE WE?

The Nature Study Hikers. Thirty-six good sports selected by chance out of all the zealous members of Miss Hughes' Nature Study classes. Some were scouts to find interesting places to go. Others planned the object of the hike.

WHEN DO WE HIKE?

Any time. In sunshine or shadow, in heat or cold, morning or evening. (Usually after Penmanship.)

WHERE DID WE HIKE?

Anywhere. Along railroad tracks, state road, cow paths, lanes, over steep hills, down ravines, through mud, or snow, over icy or scorching hot roads, stopping once in a while for a closer view of some object. Sometimes it was to identify some strange tree, other times to claim a deserted bird's nest or a cocoon.

On one trip we went to the Lodge taking with us steak, coffee, and other essentials for a good meal. What tastes better in the open air than sweet juicy steak and hot coffee?

WHY DID WE HIKE?

For various reasons and things. Cocoons, bird's nests, peculiar growths on shrubbery, ground pine, a general good time.

WAS THE CLUB VALUABLE?

Yes, not only to its members, but to all who took Nature Study. Since specimens were brought in, the whole group benefited. All its members wish for the next group belonging to the club, just as much fair, and as much foul weather, and as much enjoyment as they had.

The Art Club

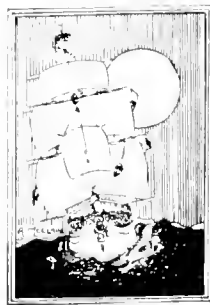

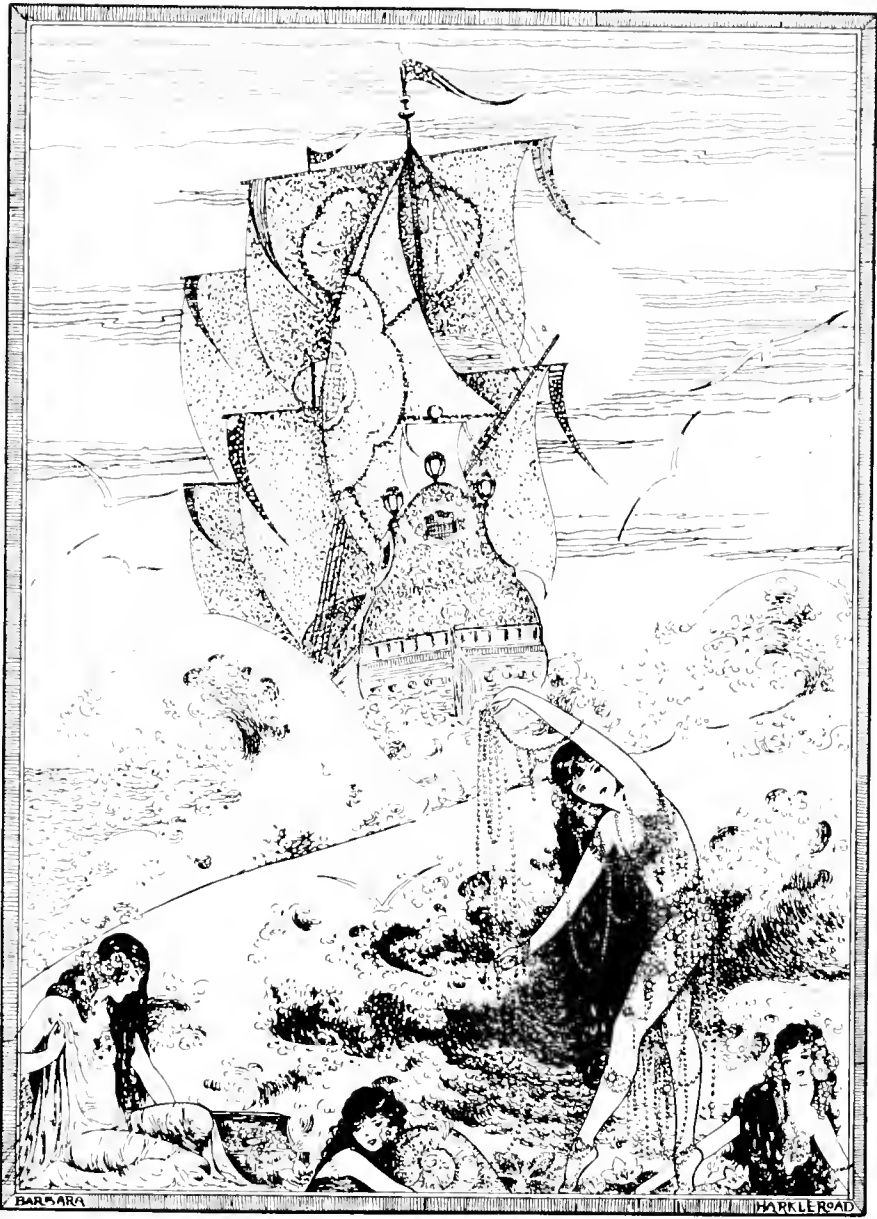

HE creative spirit of the art students at Indiana has found expression this year in a vital contribution to their department—a live art club full of vigor and enthusiasm.

The Art Club of Indiana State Normal School was organized for the purpose of stimulating and directing a permanent interest in art, fostering art appreciation, and developing creative skill. The regular weekly meetings include interesting discussions, lectures and technical activities to foster these aims.

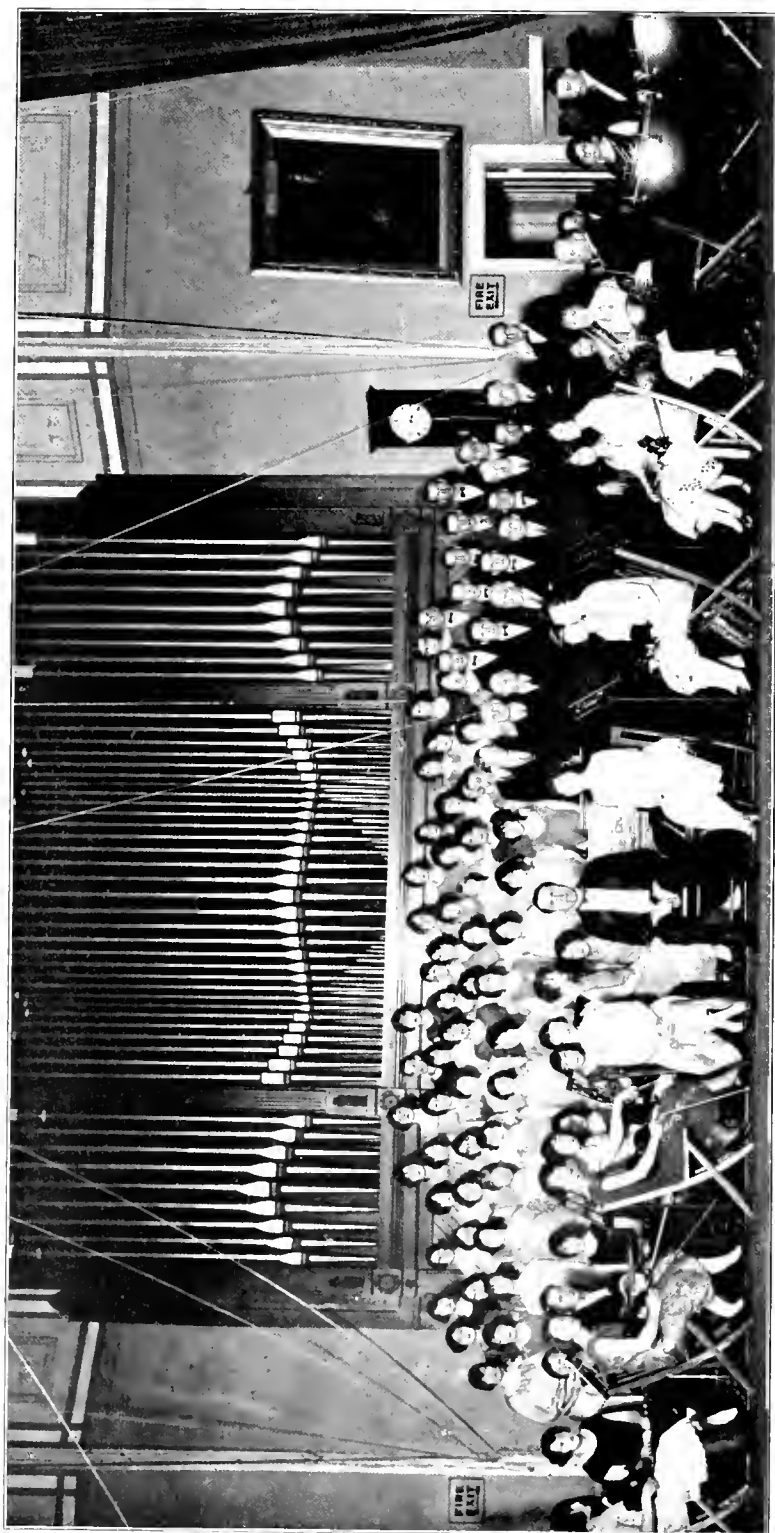

The present members hope that the organization may give to future students even greater inspiration and pleasure than it has to them during its first few months of existence—a big hope for the future.

THROUGH the halls of learning echoed rarest melodies of praise and supplication.

MUSIC

"The Messiah"

MOST artistic and expressive performance of the "Messiah" was given Monday evening, December 14, 1925, by the Indiana State Normal School Mixed Chorus, combined with the Men's Chorus of Indiana. The "Messiah" was conducted by John Wesley Neff, whose excellent leadership made the performance a great success and something to be long remembered. The assisting artists were Irma Bartholomew, soprano, Edna Walgrove Wilson, contralto, and Will Rhodes, tenor.

Through Mr. Neff's unmistakable beat and simplicity of manner, his quiet dignity and absolute command, the chorus sang with beautiful tone and interpretation. The chorus distinguished itself by precision of attack, accuracy of intonation and enunciation and unity of feeling.

Mrs. Bartholomew's interpretations of the soprano solos were delightful. Her tone was pure, resonant and brilliant, but always sympathetic and tender.

Miss Wilson's interpretations were equally satisfying. Her tone was deep, rich and resonant. She sang with great expressiveness and exquisite tone-color.

Mr. Rhodes' solos were extremely fine portrayals of sincere feeling. His voice showed great beauty and warmth.

The orchestra responded to the demands of the conductor with beauty of tone in the string section, exquisite pianissimos, gripping crescendos, and stirring climaxes.

The audience was large and exceedingly appreciative. They were always aware of the spiritual content of the "Messiah" and listened with reverence.

The numbers given were:

Recit.—"Comfort Ye My People."

Air—"Every Valley Shall Be Exalted."

Chorus—"And the Glory of the Lord."

Recit.—"Behold, a Virgin Shall Conceive."

Air—"O Thou That Tellest Good Tidings to Zion."

Chorus—"For Unto Us a Child is Born."

Pastoral Symphony

Recit.—"There Were Shepherds Abiding in the Field."

Recit.—"And the Angel Said Unto Them."

Chorus—"Glory to God."

Air—"Rejoice Greatly, O Daughter of Zion."

Air—"He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd."

Chorus—"Behold the Lamb of God."

Air—"He Was Despised."

Chorus—"Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs."

Recit.—"Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart."

Air—"Behold, And See if There be Any Sorrow."

Recit.—"He Was Cut Off Out of the Land of the Living."

Air—"But Thou Didst Not Leave His Soul in Hell."

Chorus—"Lift Up Your Heads, O Ye Gates."

Air—"I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

Chorus—"Hallelujah."

The Artists' Series

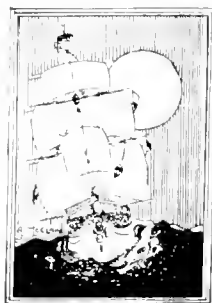

THE first concert of the Artists' Series, sponsored by the Music Department, was given by Florence Macbeth on Wednesday, November the eighteenth. Florence Macbeth possesses a beautiful, clear coloratura soprano voice. Her singing was of great beauty and aroused, very justly, great enthusiasm. Her program was varied and well balanced. Mr. George Roberts, composer-pianist, proved to be a very fitting accompanist for Miss Macbeth.

The second concert was given Friday, December eleventh, by Fraser Gange, a Scotch baritone. His program was one of great interest and appeal. Not only was his voice exceptionally rich and full of color but he had the rare quality of making a song come to life through unconscious dramatization. A very fine accompaniment was played by Mr. Earl Mitchell.

The third concert was given Friday, January the twenty-ninth, by Wanda Landowska, harpsichordist and pianist. Her program was an outstanding musical event. It consisted entirely of compositions by the old masters of which Johann S. Bach was the most eminent. She was profound in her understanding of the spirit of the seventeenth and eighteenth century music, and her skill in its performance was perfect in the union of beautiful touch and the carrying of the melodic line.

The fourth and last concert was given Friday, February, twenty-sixth, by the New York String Quartette, who presented to a very appreciative audience, a varied and artistic program. The outstanding feature of their music was the beautiful tonal effects achieved by their extraordinary smooth ensemble playing. This was the third appearance of these artists, and each year their popularity with the student body increases.

CLEVER actors made entertainment with their mimicry.

ARMADES

So This Is London

MODERN farcical comedy, So This Is London, was presented by the Senior Class of Nineteen Twenty-five as the annual Senior play. This comedy in three acts was the story of the untangling of the international prejudices between two typical English and American families.

The cast is to be congratulated on their excellent interpretation of this comedy.

"A SCENE IN THE DORMITORY"

Ruth Wilson	Mildred Hardy	Isabel Wilson
Dorothy Strine	Aileen McClain	Mercedes Clay

This sketch, which was original, was "one laugh from beginning to end." Our only fear is that our hall teachers now know everything we have heretofore been able to conceal.

"HISTORIC PAGEANT"

THE most elaborate and spectacular event of the entire year of nineteen twenty-four and twenty-five was given on East Campus, Saturday evening, May sixteenth. This was a historic and symbolic pageant, written by Miss Finney and produced to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the Normal School. Special commendation should be given to Miss Sprowls, to Miss Munson, to the music department, and to Miss Herwig, Mrs. Mack, and Mrs. Alta E. Thompson for ideas and suggestions. The dances were taught by Miss Blakesly, Miss Reiss, and Miss Apple. Miss Munson designed and Miss Robertson drafted and produced the beautiful and effective costumes.

Argument

The pageant pictures in three episodes, the founding of Pennsylvania, the awakening of Indiana to the need of education, and the development of the Normal School.

Episode I

Pan, the god of the forest, scatters woodland power and beauty by setting in motion the trees and flowers. The savages and pioneers enter the primal wilderness, where the latter are attacked by the forces of conflict—Famine, Fever, Death. The Elm Tree Treaty and Penn's union with Sylvania, a forest goddess, secures the peace and victory of civilization in the Pennsylvania valleys.

Episode II

Diana—later christened Indiana, and still later Alma Mater—is ushered in by the West Wind revelers. Franklin, with his Sprites of Learning, distributes knowledge. At first the early settlers, Indian, Quaker, German, Dutch and Scotch-Irish, spurn learning, choosing rather to sow and reap. One Sprite finds Diana asleep and awakens her to the need of education. Diana is then christened Indiana.

Episode III

Indiana is christened Alma Mater as the Dawn of Learning dancers rejoice. She is placed in the charge of the Presidency and guided by the Sprite of Jane E. Leonard (a sustained shaft of light). The Children weave a magic charm, whose enchantment safeguards the school through all trials. The East Wind announces the dark period. The Sheriff approaches, but is stayed by the wonder-working charm of the Children. The gold of the Citizens appeases him, and the support of Miners, Farmers, and Factory Folk maintains the School. The South Wind brings prosperity and Flora scatters abundance. The fiftieth year is triumphal. Old Age has portrayed the past and marched up to the fiftieth year vantage where Alma Mater is now enthroned.

Then Eternal Youth, in a flash, mounts the steps up and to the very throne of Truth, whose Gleams have lighted the way. Which contributes more to the Progress of Civilization—the sacrifice of Old Age or the driving force of Youth?

Thus through all the time they yield their gifts to Truth;

Be yours to judge who wins—Old Age or Youth.

The Passing of the Third Floor Back

THE "Passing of the Third Floor Back," by Jerome K. Jerome, a drama of real interest and substance, was presented Saturday, December 5, 1925. The play was supervised and coached under the excellent direction of Miss Edna Lee Sprowls.

It was acted with great skill and cleverness, to the satisfaction of those interested in the welfare of the Literary Society. The splendid cast is to be highly recommended for their interpretation of such a worthy play.

The Senior Prom

OCTOBER 16—

Dear Diary,

The Senior class had a meeting to-night to decide on the Prom date. Doesn't that sound thrilling? I'm going to have him here for the Prom. Nothing exciting happened to-day. Good-night, Diary.

NOVEMBER 18—

Dear Diary,

I've neglected you so, but I'm just too busy teaching to even write in you. Well, we're really going to have our Prom, even though we were cheated out of the Senior Outing. December 12 is the date that has been chosen. Hurrah!

DECEMBER 2—

Dear Diary,

I had a wonderful Thanksgiving vacation. Dates, dances, and—oh, just the best time. Well, I asked him up for the Prom and he's coming. No wonder I'm happy but, Diary, I forgot I have three plans to write before "lights."

DECEMBER 9—

Dear Diary,

My dress came for the Prom and just between you and me, Diary, he'll like me in it. Just three more days until the Prom.

DECEMBER 11—

Dear Diary,

Every one is so excited. Some of the girls won't know until tonight whether their men are coming. We had our dresses approved. Thank goodness that ordeal is over. Well, Diary, I guess tomorrow will come.

DECEMBER 13—

Dear Diary,

I was absolutely too tired to write last night. The Prom is over. Did we have a wonderful time? Well, I just can't write it down. "Rec" Hall looked so attractive, and the girls all looked lovely in their beautiful evening gowns. The end of the evening came all too soon and everything ended so suddenly, just like the story of Cinderella. I felt so sorry for the poor Juniors that night, but then, their Prom. is coming soon.

THE PROM GIRL

Oh, let the moon shine out tonight,
And let the music start:
My feet are dancing to the time
That's measured by my heart!

Oh, Life is good when one is young
And Love is kind and true,
When happy feet are light as air
And laughter light as dew.

So let the moon shine out tonight,
And let the music start,
So that my restless feet may dance
To the beat of my laughing heart.

The Inter-Fraternity Dance

THE annual Inter-Fraternity dance of the Phi Alpha and Omega Chi Fraternities was held in the ballroom of the school Wednesday evening, December the twenty-third, nineteen hundred twenty-five.

The music furnished by the "Varsity Eight" of Altoona helped make the evening a success for the alumni and guests of the two fraternities.

Each one attending the dance received a very pleasing favor, a small fitted leather purse. Novelty paper hats and balloons added color to the already attractive hall, with its Christmas trees, colored lights and huge Snowman.

From the first introduction to the last "Good night," merriment held full sway of the evening.

The Junior Prom

"Did you have a nice time while you were home, Nell?"

"Oh, I certainly did. How was the Prom?"

"What a foolish question, of course I had a marvelous time."

"Well, tell me all about it since I couldn't go."

HE excitement began Saturday morning and afternoon when the Prom men began to arrive, and were they good-looking? Well, ask those Seniors who hung out of their window.

Finally the great night arrived and all the Juniors bustled around in the greatest excitement putting a touch here and a final touch there. At last they were ready to go down and meet their "hims."

Proudly they piloted their guests through the dignified receiving line and out into "Rec" Hall. It certainly didn't look like the place in which our ordinary Saturday night dances are held. Palms and ferns were attractively arranged throughout the Hall.

When the girls and boys and their guests had all apparently arrived, the orchestra began to play. I'd have loved to have had a picture of everyone dancing. The girls looked like so many lovely colored flowers in their pretty, bright evening dresses and the boys presented quite a pleasant contrast in their conventional black. And the music—it was splendid! Old "Rec" Hall echoed with the strains of music. Encore after encore was demanded by the dancers.

I could go on raving about the Prom but then all lovely things come quickly to an end and so at twelve o'clock, just like the story of Cinderella, everyone left "Rec" Hall. There were a few who still lingered as though loathe to leave a scene of so much merriment but these finally were kindly but firmly dispersed.

Away into the night the Prom was still being discussed and I'm sure the Juniors unanimously decided that it was the best Prom ever given. But then that's life."

"Well, it certainly does sound lovely to me. I'm very sorry I went home instead of staying for it."

The Spring Dance

AST of all the large formal class dances of the year is the Spring Dance, and in the eyes of the participants, the second year students and the third year Seniors, this year's dance was the most successful. Of course, that is only natural, we always think our own particular interests are a wee bit better than others. We will have to admit, however, that this particular Spring Dance was quite a success.

The Hall was beautifully and artistically decorated with spring colors carried out with flowers and palms. Naturally the many pretty colored gowns of the girls added to the beauty of the room.

The music of the orchestra carried everyone away to his or her dream of summer and flowers and moonlight. The happy voices of the dancers was carried up to the ears of the wistful girls who weren't second year students.

Finally, the dance ended as all dances do, and it was with reluctance that everyone left the dance floor. The one remaining comfort was that next year there'll be another dance.

Conservatory Kids

On the evening of Friday, November 13, many little feet were heard pattering through the halls of the Normal School building, as the children hurried to their first party in the Conservatory. The tiny tots, all attired in their party clothes, with sashes, hair-ribbons, and big neckties much in evidence, assembled in the reception-room, where they sat around trying not to appear conscious of their fine appearance. At last when every little guest had arrived, they all went to look at the new nursery. Each little girl went into ecstasies over the dolls, and several nearly came to blows over the question of whose doll should occupy the beautiful white cradle. The boys, and some girls, too, I fear raced around on scooters, upsetting their playments and causing general confusion, until "Francie" Jones asked everyone to join in the grand march. Each child then took his partner's hand and skipped around the Conservatory, upstairs and down, to the music which "Evie" Jones played on her little piano. After that, the kiddies played games, "Ring around the Rosie," "Three Deep," "Pop Goes the Weasel," and others equally entertaining. That is, everyone played except two, our baby, Barbara, who, being scarcely out of long clothes, must needs watch the proceedings from her go-cart, and young "Johnny" Neff, whose lack of two front teeth made him so bashful, he was unable to do anything but lean against the wall, and once in a while, peep shyly at a pretty little girl with two big white hair-ribbons at the sides of her head.

Before long some of the youngsters tired of the games, and, led by lively Mary Lowman, whose pig-tails bobbed vigorously, began to dance the Charleston, a step which Mary had learned at dancing school. The Children's Orchestra, composed of "Evie" Jones, young "Billy" Paterick, "Polly" McClelland, "Louie" Evans and "Miky" Sweeney, then struck up some fine tunes on their combs and "kazoos." All the youthful merrymakers danced to this music until lunch was served. Ice cream, two kinds of delicious cake, and lolly-pops made up this delightful repast. When every child had eaten his fill, it was time to leave for home, because some of the guests were very small, and the sand-man was already beginning to tug at their eye-lids. The children all agreed, as they said good-bye that this had been the loveliest party they had ever attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Entertained by Junior Chamber of Commerce

ATURDAY evening, November 14, in Leonard Hall, the first regular meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Webb, who were married a few weeks prior to the opening of the fall term.

Mr. Turse, President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the organization, then presented Mr. and Mrs. Webb with the Maxfield Parrish painting, "Daybreak." Both Mr. and Mrs. Webb graciously acknowledged the gift with clever speeches.

Following this, a mock wedding was given, with the following people taking part:

Bride	Pearl Smith
Groom	William Bush
Minister	Everett Bellen
Maid of Honor	Clara Buchholz
Bridesmaids	Ethel Kerchner, Mary Salada
Best Man	Albert Drumheller
Ringbearer	Edward Swearman
Trainbearers	Hilda Furness, Edna Morrissey
Flower Girl	Elfreda Bauersfeld
Mother of Bride	Gertrude Adelson
Father of Bride	William Gallagher
Announcer	Bernard McCormick

GUESTS

Jackie Coogan	Dorothy Braden
Ben Turpin	Margaret Bonner
Rosie O'Grady	Ruth Thomas
Irene Castle	Helen Rankin
Gloria Swanson	Marguerite Gillis
Luis Angel Firpo	Gladstone Kocher
Anna Q. Nilsson	Cornelia Anderson
Colleen Moore	Florence Ropp
Padewski	Norman Wertman
Gilda Gray	Lucille Gunnerson
Tom Mix	Kenneth Moorhead
Douglas Fairbanks	Ralph Savage
Nita Naldi	Dora Kades
Baby Peggy	Kathryn Bloomfield

After the wedding, refreshments were served, and then the dancing began. It lasted until 9:45, when Mr. Turse appeared on the "stage" and recited "The Face on the Bar Room Floor." His interpretation of the famous poem proved realistic and entertaining. After this number, everybody said good-night and went away feeling that this would be a red-letter night in the history of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Junior High School Party

THE Junior High School Department enjoyed a delightful party on Friday evening, January 15. This party was held in a series of installments. The first one was Booth Tarkington's "The Ghost," which was given in the chapel. Everyone enjoyed this comedy. After the play Dinty Frye, Jil Rothrock and Warren Maley, "The Great Miscellaneous Three" rendered "The Letter from Ohio" and "Show Me the Way to Go Home" very beautifully (emphasis on the "beautiful" please).

President Gene Weimer then announced that the second installment would be in the basement of Leonard Hall.

Everyone was christened as soon as he arrived. The Gump family, Pa Perkins, and his family as well as the Bungles, the Mutts and the Jeffs were all represented. After the families were united, they proceeded to get the refreshments which were served cafeteria style. There were plenty of sandwiches, cake and punch so that everyone was satisfied.

Of course, there was dancing and Evelyn Jones "orchestrating." There was the usual men's choice and ladies' choice. Henry Ford would have enjoyed seeing the popularity of the Virginia Reel.

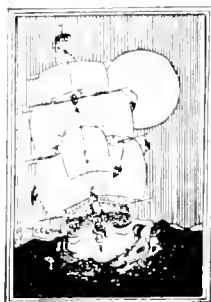

Peg Hawkins, known all over the school for her knowledge of "Black Arts" in foretelling the future as well as the past, told teachers and students startling facts.

In the hall, underneath some shaded lights were four tables of bridge. If there were some who did not have a good time it was not on account of the lack of effort on the part of the entertainment committee.

The Junior High School Party was a truly unique one. The things that are usually done in the dark were done 'neath the brightest of lights. Some of the members of the faculty will verify this statement.

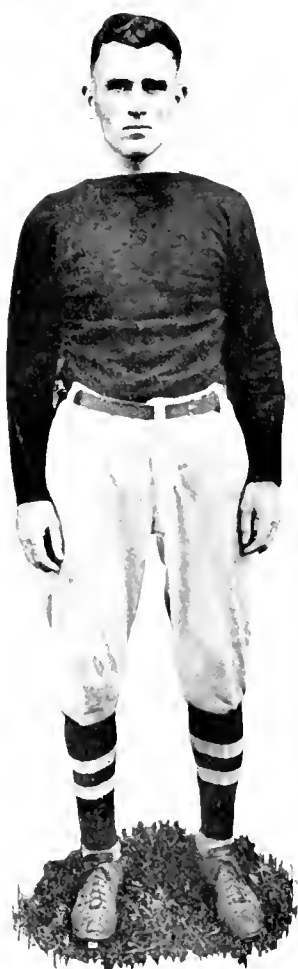

At 9:45, our president asked us to disperse. We gathered up the remaining sandwiches and went to our rooms to dream about the party.

HERE were seen many who were famed for their strength and valor.

Coach Ruffner

Coach Charles Ruffner

INDIANA again had the good fortune of having Coach Charles Ruffner take charge of athletics. Through much hard work Coach Ruffner gathered an excellent group of men together to provide Indiana with a winning football team. He succeeded admirably. Coach Ruffner is a product of the Indiana Normal School. He starred in athletics while here. After leaving Normal School, he took up school work at Grove City College, where he starred at end on the football eleven. He is also an excellent baseball player, and was considered quite a star behind the bat. Upon completion of his work at Grove City College, he took up coaching in high schools, making a splendid success of the scholastic work. He came to Indiana Normal in the fall of 1923.

His football season with the Red and Slate in 1923 was a success. Successful, too, were his basketball and baseball teams. This year Ruffner turned out a football team that paralleled those of former Indiana history. Through his untiring efforts as coach, this team went through the season without defeat. Only six points were scored against Indiana during the whole season. This is a record that any coach should be proud of.

Upon the closing of football season, Coach Ruffner issued a call for basketball candidates, and a promising team was rounded out; but due to injuries and withdrawals from school, the team did not turn out so well. However, in spite of this fact, the team played consistent basketball and showed that they had been well coached. Soon baseball will begin with the candidates on hand. A splendid season is looked for. A fine schedule has been arranged; there will be plenty of good clean sport for the fan.

The success of athletics has been chiefly due to the hard work and capability of Coach Ruffner. He is a thorough gentleman in school and out, a competent coach, and a good all around fellow. Any school should be proud to have a man of Mr. Ruffner's calibre on the faculty.

Football

NDIANA Normal's grid season started Saturday, October 3, 1925. The men were handicapped by the lack of a training camp, nevertheless, Coach Ruffner whipped his men into fine shape in a short space of time.

The team was fortunate in having five letter-men back—Magill, Chalmers, King, Sweeney and Saylor—besides Wiemer and McGreagor, two substitutes from last year. They were also very fortunate in finding excellent material among the new men.

The first game of the season was played October 3, on the Normal field with the Altoona Apprentice Club. The game was without score until the third quarter, when the visitors gained the edge and won, 9 to 6.

This was a hard blow to the Normal, its being the first defeat since the 1923 season.

Coach Ruffner's eleven proved victorious in the second game, with Edinboro Normal. The most sensational play of the day was staged by Sweeney, when he kicked a drop kick from a difficult angle on the 30-yard line.

The third game, played at Bloomsburg did not lack for thrills at any time. Bloomsburg failed to score after carrying the ball to within one foot of the coveted goal. Indiana won, 7 to 0.

Westinghouse Tech held Indiana to a 0 to 0 score the following week in a very interesting game.

Carnegie Tech handed Indiana a 40 to 0 defeat on October 31. This was the only game of the season in which Indiana was out-classed.

Kent College tied with the Red and Slate—6-6. This was quite an accomplishment for Kent.

Lock Haven Normal bowed to Indiana, 60 to 0. This game was one-sided from start to finish. Indiana put over 3 touchdowns in 42 seconds of play, two from the kick-off and one from a punt.

The final game of the season was played at Shippensburg and after a hard-fought battle the Red and Slate finished its season by a 14 to 6 loss. This game was a hard one to lose as it decided the State Normal School championship.

"Maggie"

MAGGIE" may be called our "all-round" athlete. Not once this year did a play go round his end for a touchdown for the opponents. "Maggie" leaves us this year and his place will be hard to fill. We wish him much success.

MICHAEL SWEENEY

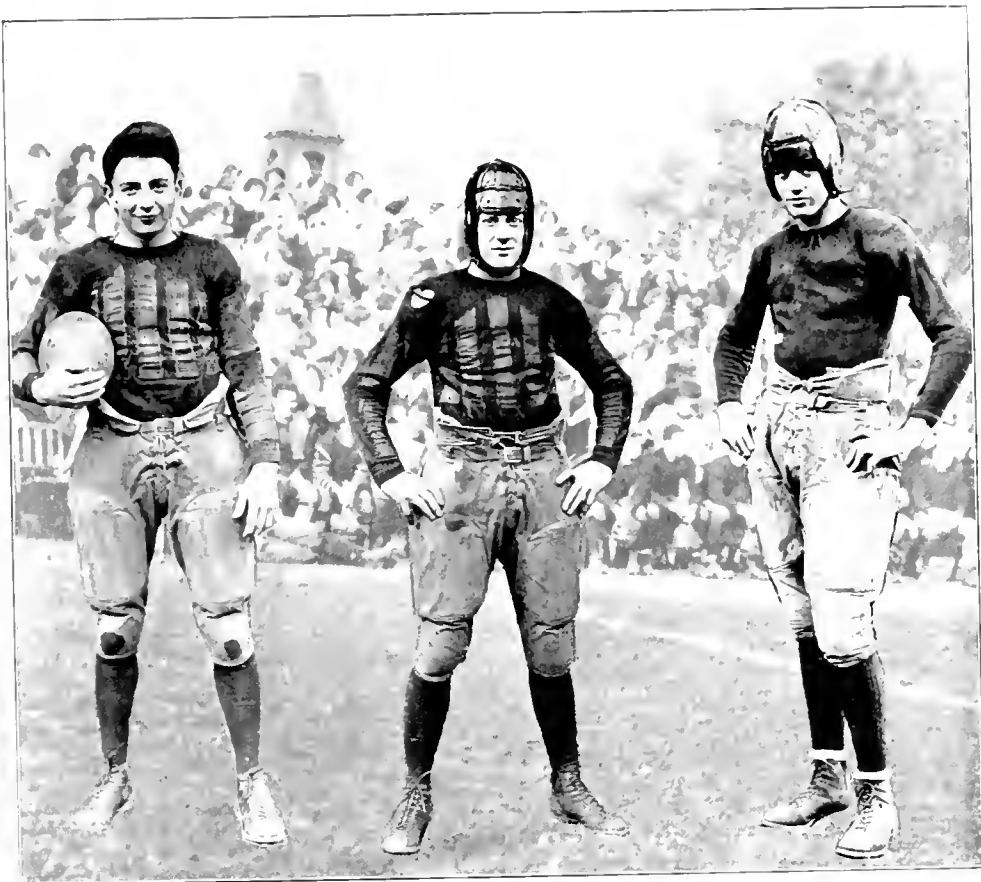

"Mike"

Plain, common, ordinary football sense, plus strategy, plus sportsmanship, and several years of experience gave Sweeney everything he needed to rule over the field with a careful hand. As a player, Mike had the goods. With one more year left at Indiana we look for great things from him.

EUGENE WEIMER

"Gene"

Weimer, one of our fullbacks, made a fighting player's show against exceptional hard luck. He played hard and determinedly. His tackling was very sure and hard and combined with his speed, made him a hard-hitting player. We lose him this year by graduation and know his loss will be greatly felt.

NORMAN KING

"King"

King is our speedy halfback. When running an interference, the opposing team knew they had someone to "clip out." He isn't very tall, but what he lacks in stature he makes up with the push he has in him. He is a deadly tackler as many opposing backs could testify. King still has another year in Indiana.

ALBERT CHALMERS

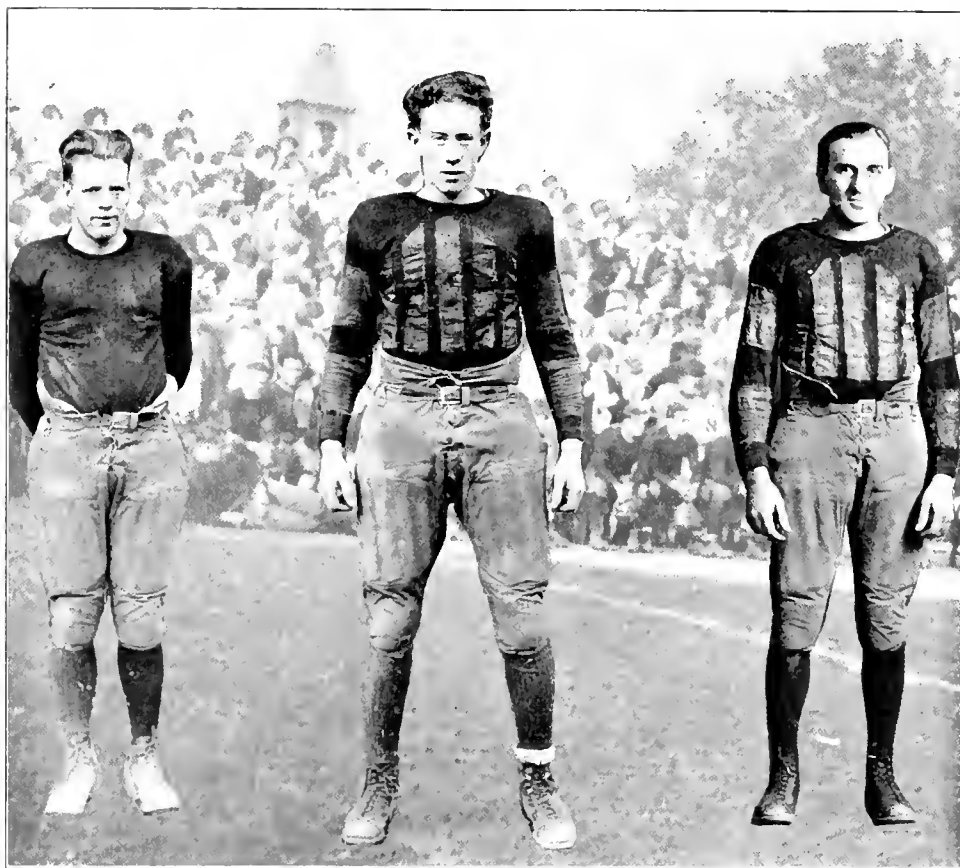

"Bus"

The name "Bus" is appropriate, due to his hauling capacity. He made many first downs with at least three opponents hanging on. He and King have set a world's record for scoring three touchdowns in forty-two seconds. We don't know here "Bus" will be next year, but no matter where, his hobbies will be, football and girls.

DONALD MALCOLM

"Malc"

"Malc" is a dependable guard and his ability to break up the play of opponents is well known. He is a go-getter from the start. He is a local lad and we shall miss him next year.

ROSS MCGREGOR

"Punch"

"Punch", one of our guards, comes from the local high school. His ability to break through the lines troubled the opponents. "Punch" has two natures. One he portrays in school clothes, and the other in football paraphernalia. We like his double nature but know that opposing teams would rather see him in civilian clothes.

WALTER PATTERSON

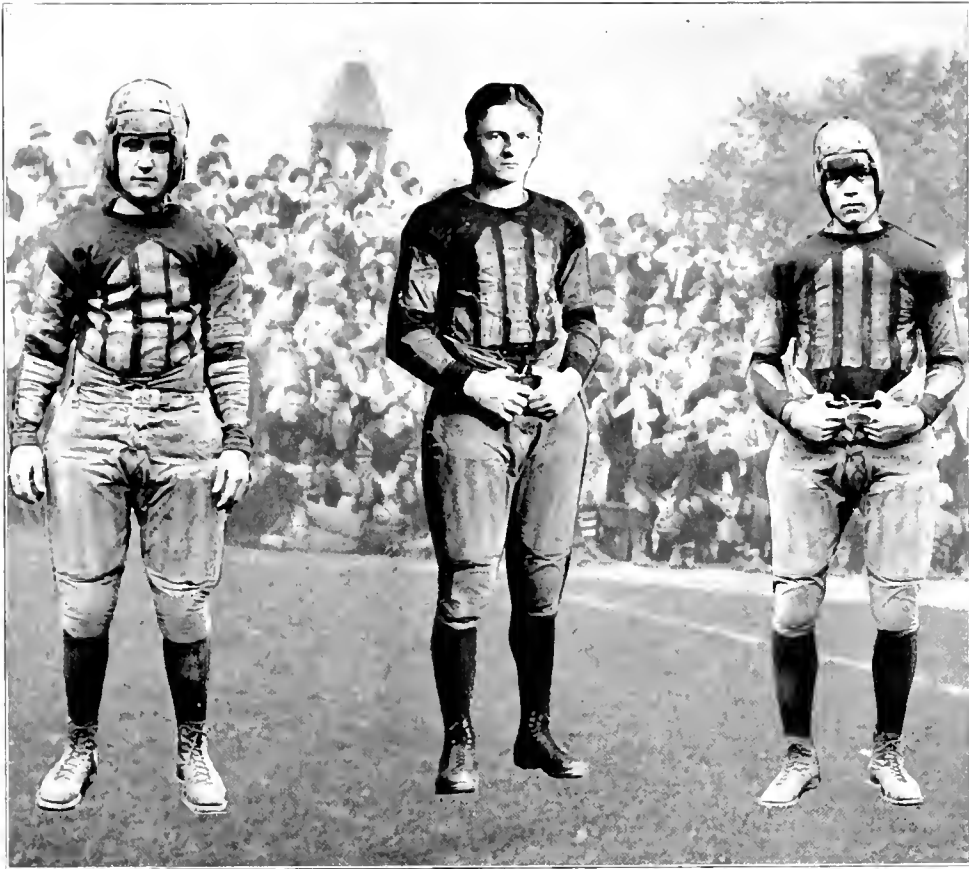

"Pat"

"Pat's" aggressive ability was shown on both the offense and defense. As a snappy and hard plugging guard, "Pat" can surely fill the position. Indiana is fortunate in having you with us next year, "Pat."

WILLIAM GALLAGHER

"Bill"

Here's looking at the old war horse, "Bill" Gallagher, the invincible center of Indiana, who has just completed one of those seasons which everyone likes to see: one full of fire, snap and fight. This is "Bill's" first year with us but it is unnecessary to say we "expect great things from him," as we all know he'll be there when the time comes.

ROY HICKES

"Roy"

Roy, our quarterback, was like Napoleon—small, but a great field general. He thought out his campaigns like the general of old, and proved that brains, not size, win. We predict another triumph for him in his next campaign—'26.

CARL GRAF

"Pete"

"Pete" was one of our strong halfbacks. He has ability to catch passes, carry a football and gain ground. He comes from Altoona, and the nicest thing that can be said about the football career of "Pete" is that he will be back next year.

PAUL SALSGIVER

"Salzy"

This year was his first Normal Red but he played a wonderful game. Each contest was marked by "Salsy's" playing. Time and again he smashed through for a tackle. Always he remained the "fighting tackle" on the line. Salsgiver has another year ahead of him and as an Altoona racing bill once read, "Watch the dust."

EVERETT BELLEN
"Bellen"

Bellen, our Herculean tackle, was ever ready for his play. He plunged forward eagerly when the ball was snapped and our sympathies were with the opposing line. Welcome back, Bellen!

VIRGIL SAYLOR
"Verg"

One of the few heavy men on the team, "Verg" was a big factor in the strength of the line. He usually played through the entire game without being relieved by a substitute. "Verg" is a sure and fearless tackler and a remarkably fast man in running down punts. He will be one of the good men available for next year's team.

Roy Mattern

Manager

Football

ROY devoted much time and effort to the managing of the team. Besides taking care of visiting teams, he always found time to be on hand and help the "Red and Slate." To our manager goes some credit for our successful season.

Chear Leaders

McCormick

Nelson

"Maggie"

Forward Guard

Du Bois

LITTLE, red-haired fellow who came to us from Clarion Normal. "That's him." Some call him "Copenhagen." "Maggie" is just a quiet sort of a chap, but he sure can tear things up on the basketball floor. He's little in size only, because he always has the greatest consistency and the biggest smile. He is very level-headed and never gets mad even when you call him Luke. He is also known as the "Inky Racer" Kid. Ask him. He never blushes even when he makes five out of five fouls. From the time "Ollie", his old side kick left, he has been behaving as a gentleman should.

CRISSMAN

Forward

Indiana

CRISSMAN is one of the fastest forwards ever turned out at Indiana Normal. He is a local lad, is quick to see opportunities, and is a dangerous man under the basket. Crissman always plays a "bang-up" game and is one of the high scorers. With more experience he will no doubt become one of the best forwards in this part of the state.

BISHOP

Guard

Titusville

BISHOP was one of the hardest-working men on the squad. In every game he gave his best. He was put out of a few games in the early season due to personals, but this just showed that he was trying hard. "Pret" saved many a game by his teamwork and passing. He shoots very often from difficult angles and usually drops them in. We all appreciated "Pret's" work this year. We hope he will be here for another, and we know he will develop into a much improved player.

ALLEBACH

Forward

ALLEBACH came to us during the middle of the season from Grove City. He was a stone-wall on the defense and a very accurate shot. He added greatly to the teamwork of the team and handles himself very well in every game. When Crissman and "Bob" got going, it was very hard for their opponents to stop them. "Bob" drops in an average of five or six every game which gives you an idea of his value. We do not know whether he will be back next year or not but we wish him success.

ALEXICK

Guard-Forward

Latrobe

JOHNNY" was one of the three last year's letter men to come back. He started the year playing at forward, and he, paired off with Chrisman, certainly made lots of action for the opposing guards. With the coming of Allebach, Johnny was shifted to a guard position, and it may be said that he played either position equally well. Johnny is a very conscientious player, always willing and ready to go. He was always sure of playing a "bang-up" game no matter what the odds against him. He has one valuable asset to a basketball player, a steady head. He is a quick thinker, grasps situations at the psychological moment, and usually winds up with a field goal to his credit. He does occasionally get a bit rough as was evidenced by his Bloomsburg game, where he was tossed out on personals before the second quarter was a minute old. Here's to your success, Johnny.

SALSGIVER

Center-Forward

Indiana

SALZY" is a local lad out for the first time for basketball this year. He alternated between center and guard, playing a good game wherever placed. His height stood him in good stead at either position. Seldom was he out-jumped and many a shot was broken by those long arms. Considering his short basketball career, he has certainly made a fine showing. With the advantage of this year's training, he should set a very fast pace next year.

Basketball

THE first school day after Thanksgiving vacation Mr. Ruffner, our worthy coach, issued a call for basketball candidates. As always, when the call is made in any branch of sports a large number of boys responded. In fact, so many responded that a cut in the squad had to be made the first week. This was no easy matter as only two of last year's varsity were in school. Picking those whom he thought most likely candidates, Coach Ruffner started his training in earnest.

After three weeks of strenuous practice the team got off to a flying start by taking Blairsville High into camp by the score of 44-33. The score would have been much higher had it not been so much of an experimental contest. The coach seized this game as an opportunity to measure the ability of the various candidates.

If the result of the second game of the season were to be taken as a standard, Normal was in for a banner year in the cage sport. Starting the game with the men who had shown good form in the opening game, Coach Ruffner soon found that the contest was to be a one-sided affair and made numerous substitutions, no man on the squad playing more than one quarter. Despite the coach's efforts make it even Normal won by the score of 42-7.

With such impressive victories as these to start the season the wearers of the Red and Slate returned to school before the Christmas vacation had ended. They took a trip northward playing at Ford City, New Bethlehem and Punxsutawney.

The game at Ford City was an easy victory for Our Team, the game serving only for the purpose of conditioning the men. The final score 29-12 in our favor is a good indicator of the way the game was played.

The following night the squad played at New Bethlehem and again demonstrated their superiority by defeating the steel-town team, 33-12.

On the way home the squad stopped at Punxsutawney to play the High School of that town. Unable to stand the strain without sufficient rest the Red and Slate bowed to the groundhogs by a score of 22-15. A few of the players showed signs of distress and were substituted for, only to return to the game as soon as they had rested for a short time. The followers of the Normal team claim the result would have been different had the contest come later in the season.

Coming back home and with a chance to rest up the team took a brace and defeated three strong teams in succession. The first victory was over Apollo American Legion, a team that has played together for the past few years. The visitors played a hard game but their efforts were not sufficient, as they were on the short end of a 45-28 score.

A few days later Ford City High journeyed here to find the Normal passers in the pink of condition. They had come here to avenge themselves for the defeat handed them a few weeks before, but the Normal boys succeeded in sending them home smarting under a 42-26 score.

Long will the student body remember the game played here with Shady Side Academy. Always in years past Shady Side was represented by a fast aggregation and this year was no exception. The visitors were a hard team to beat. Several times during the game the score was tied and at the final whistle Indiana led by only two points. There was a hot discussion when the result was known, the Shady Side team claiming that the final whistle had blown before the winning points were scored. The referee held the points legal and the game was added as another victory for Indiana.

The most disastrous trip from a local viewpoint was the one on which the team traveled to Bellefonte Academy and then to Bloomsburg Normal. In the first stop-off, the Bellefonte crew gave the team the worst defeat they had suffered so far. The Bellefonte team, composed of a number of scholastic stars, showed that football was not the only sport in which they were among the best. The Normal team left there to continue their journey to Bloomsburg suffering under a 44-22 defeat.

An intense rivalry is springing up between Bloomsburg and Indiana. We having defeated them in football, they turned the tables by trimming us in basketball. By the relations between the two schools and from the interest displayed, there will be some hot contests to look forward to. The defeat 41-29 handed us at Bloomsburg was considered a moral victory for the Red and Slate. Bloomsburg did most of their scoring in the last quarter when we played with only four men, the others being ineligible on account of personal fouls.

West Liberty Normal coming here from West Virginia with eight consecutive wins to their credit were intercepted in their march through the season without a defeat. Even the most loyal of students were surprised to see our team cop the bacon. A team's reputation travels before it and great things were expected of the visitors. But Indiana spirit rises highest when the going is hardest and the team proved themselves capable of the occasion, defeating the mountaineers, 36-29.

With a victory over such a team as West Liberty to spur them on the team easily took the backbreakers or the Universal Chiropractic College of Pittsburgh into camp. The score was 34-10 in our favor, and the spectators were sadly disappointed as the visitors were expected to put up a better fight.

In the next game which was played away from home the team suffered a defeat, losing to the fast Greensburg High quintet by the score of 36-24. This game was more interesting than the score indicates, Normal, being handicapped by the large floor as the armory at Greensburg is twice the size of our own floor.

On February 9 the Leechburg Independents, a contender for the championship of the Conemaugh Valley, came here. The game replete with thrills was finished in an extra five-minute period, Normal winning by a one-point advantage, 36-35.

The next game was played at home with Bellefonte furnishing the opposition. Bellefonte duplicated their feat of a few weeks before and also did what no other team had been able to accomplish so far in the season. It was the first time Normal was defeated on their own floor. The score was not quite so bad as the result of the previous game, being 30-19 in Bellefonte's favor.

Following this defeat Greensburg High rubbed it in, taking the Normal over 29-21. Normal led in this game until the last quarter when the visitors spurted and succeeded in overcoming our lead.

With the never-say-die spirit the team journeyed to Pittsburgh and succeeded in making it two victories for the season over Shady Side Academy. The game was hard fought throughout, Indiana being without the services of two of their regulars who were on the sick list. But Normal came out on top in the extra five-minute period, which was necessary to break the deadlock at the end of the game. The score was tied 24 all at the end of the fourth quarter and at the end of the extra period it was 28-26 in Indiana's favor.

The Phil-Club, a strong independent team, took over the Normal passers to the tune of 36-29. The team was coached by Mr. Green, a former student of Indiana, who played on the varsity here several years ago.

The final game of the season with Bloomsburg packed Armory to such an extent that some of the town people had to be turned away. The game was the talk of the school for a few weeks before the date set. The slogan "Beat Bloomsburg," was on the tip of every tongue and had moral support counted for anything, the victory should have been ours. The Bloomsburgers, undaunted by the shrill yells of the student body, never once let up and succeeded in handling a 36-27 defeat to the representatives of Indiana. That old adage, "If at first you don't succeed, then try, try again," failed to work at Altoona. For six years Indiana has been trying to chalk up a victory over Altoona High, but so far has failed in the attempt. Altoona always has a team that has played together for two or three years and are hard to beat on their home floor. This year they trimmed our team 49-23, but some day we hope to avenge all these defeats.

Although the record this year may not be so impressive, the men who represented the school were doing their best at all times. Those men who gave their utmost that Indiana might prosper are: Magill, Capt.; Alexich, Allebach, Chrissman, Bishop, Salsgiver, Swearman, Collins, Barr, Davis, Shelley, Nelson, McCormick, Meads, Chalmers and Gregory.

Scrubs

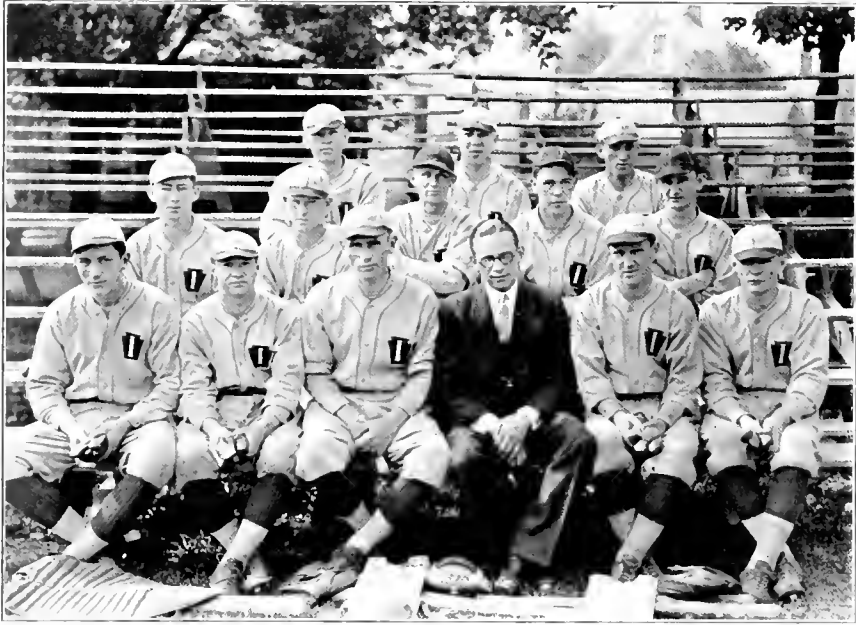

WE mean nothing detrimental when we say Scrubs. Every man of them who played contributed as much to the success of his team as those who received their letters. Whether sitting on the bench or scrimmaging in practice they were just as eager and full of fight as a football player could be. When they were called in to substitute they acquitted themselves nobly. Of the following men Woodburn, Thompson, Bishop, Luke, Arnholt, Barr, Tuttle, Rea and Meads, practically all will be back next year and with the training they have already received, Indiana will not lack for seasoned material with which to start the new season.

GALLAGHER

WE can't say too much about "Irish". It was a credit to his friends that they should pick so capable a manager. He fulfilled his position to everyone's satisfaction and was never too tired to see to the team's comfort. Much of the smooth working quality of the squad was due to their very efficient manager.

Top Row: Salsgiver; Katchmer.

CENTER ROW: Brennan; Magill; Shelly; Lindberg; Kunkle.

Baseball

Owing to bad weather conditions, our team did not get started in their training until late in the season. It was two weeks before Easter when Coach Ruffner called for candidates for the team, and most of the men responded. Then came the task of selecting the right man for the right position. Many of the men were inexperienced; and this placed the team at a disadvantage, but they were plucky and had the spirit and determination to go in and win. They did, and the result was that we lost but three games.

Two days after Easter vacation, the season was opened with a bang. The bleachers were filled and everything was in an uproar. Why not? Our season had opened and we were out for the pennant.

The first game was with Ford City High School. Our boys entered the fray with a determination to win and they emerged the victors, but by a close score.

This season contained one of the hardest schedules that Indiana has had for years, and taking all in all, she had a very successful season. Too much credit cannot be given to Coach Ruffner, for it is he who is placing Indiana back on the pedestal that she formerly occupied in athletics.

The schedule for the season included such teams as Ford City High School, Kittanning High School, Shady Side Academy, Bellefonte Academy, Carnegie Tech Freshmen, Dayton, West Va. Freshmen, Alumni, St. Vincent College, and several other of the best independent teams of the country.

Tipoffs

DECEMBER 2, 1925

BASKETBALL season at last! We have been looking forward to it ever since school started. Miss Lowman announced in Chapel this morning that those who wished to try out for varsity basketball, were to sign up in East Parlor at one o'clock. We made a mad dash for East Parlor right after lunch but as usual we had to wait our turn for there was a young army ahead of us. We are all glad that Miss Reiss is going to coach the team this year for who could forget what a success she made of the dancing in the Pageant last spring?

DECEMBER 5, 1925

We had our first practice today. How good it seemed to get out on the floor again! We played hard but of course we were all out of practice. We won't have practice again until the 15th so that everyone can have an opportunity to try out.

DECEMBER 15, 1925

Poultry Shows always do come at the wrong time! The Armory is being used all this week for a poultry show. Can you picture that? Now we have to resort to our "overgrown vestibule" down in the cellar. It was originally a "gym" and is equipped with one basket but there isn't room to turn around. We were down tonight and practiced for an hour.

DECEMBER 19, 1925

Our numbers dwindled down to twenty-two today, after the eliminations were completed. We are to sit at the training tables. Miss Reiss is to be at the head of one and Miss Apple, the other. We won't practice again until after Christmas vacation but we were advised as to our training during the holidays.

JANUARY 5, 1926

We started the New Year right by having a good hard practice today. We were so stiff we could hardly walk into the dining room. Imagine practice after a two weeks' vacation. We sat at the training tables tonight. No more sweets for us! We don't mind for we get plenty of fruit, milk and ice cream.

JANUARY 9, 1926

More hard practice! Our hardest game of the season is only a week off. It's at home and a doubleheader too, for the boys play Shadyside Academy.

JANUARY 14, 1926

We received our uniforms tonight. Miss Reiss called us together and gave us some valuable advice regarding the game, Saturday. Of course, we realize that Slippery Rock is practically a "Health Ed" school but we are going to put up a strong fight.

JANUARY 16, 1926

We played our first game today with Slippery Rock. We lost but we made them fight hard for every point they made. The speedy passwork of our team was the outstanding feature of the game. Everyone said it was a good game and we did remarkably well to hold our opponents down to such a score.

JANUARY 21, 1926

Ann Plotzer came out to practice today. We all welcomed Ann for she was one of our best forwards last year. Practice went pretty well today. We all played hard for we were anxious to go on the trip to Juniata. After practice Miss Reiss told us what girls were to go.

JANUARY 23, 1926

We left Indiana on the 12:10 today and arrived at Huntingdon about four o'clock. "Finnie" showed us Huntingdon for that is her home town. We had to take a dilapidated old street car up to the school. When we boarded the trolley, the motorman, and incidentally the conductor, informed us that the equilibrium of the car was not so good as in days of yore. Acting upon this information, we divided our numbers and sat on opposite sides of the car. The Juniata girls met us and took us to our rooms. We were glad to rest after our long journey. We ate dinner about five thirty and after we had eaten, we had to dress for the game. We didn't know what kind of a team to expect for this was Juniata's first game. We soon found out however, that we were pretty evenly matched. "Phil" and "Cassells" our faithful centers played an exceptionally good game, while "Mid" Hardy exhibited her skill in caging field goals. On the whole, the game was fast and exciting.

After the game, the Juniata girls invited us up to their club room where they entertained us for the remainder of the evening.

JANUARY 24, 1926

We had breakfast at eight o'clock this morning. After we ate, some of us went to church while others went walking. At ten o'clock we left Huntingdon for Altoona. We arrived about eleven thirty and meandered up to the Penn Alto where we waited in the lobby until it was time for dinner. And such a dinner as we had! Turkey and everything that goes with it. We all sat at one big long table so we felt very much at home. After this sumptuous feast, we decided to go window shopping. Of course, we incidentally saw Altoona. We didn't have very much time, for our train left at four o'clock. We were all anxious to get the train for we knew our boys would be on it. Sure enough, as the train pulled into the station we saw Johnny Alexick and Dick Shelley peering out of the window. Of course we had to hear all about their trip and especially about that referee at Bloomsburg who fouled three of our boys out of the game, leaving them with four players to finish the game.

Needless to say we had a very exciting ride from Altoona to Indiana.

JANUARY 28, 1926

Hard practice? Well, I guess! We just have to beat Aspinwall Saturday. If we all play as we did at practice tonight, there won't be any doubt about it. We are going in a bus and will return Saturday night.

JANUARY 30, 1926

We left Indiana at one-thirty today and didn't get to Aspinwall until four-thirty. We had to hurry to get ready for dinner at five. The Aspinwall girls served us a delicious meal, which they had prepared themselves. At seven o'clock we were all down on the "gym" floor getting "warmed up." At last the game started and next to Slippery Rock, it was the hardest struggle. We had to play hard, but we did it. The main feature of the game was the excellent passwork exhibited on both sides. Ann Plotzer demonstrated her ability in shooting field goals and fouls.

We left Aspinwall immediately after the game and as most of us were tired, we slept much of the way back. We arrived at a rather unusual time and we were all quite thrilled to deliberately walk into school at such an early hour.

FEBRUARY 4, 1926

Are we tired? Well I should say we are! We worked exceptionally hard today for we have a game with Clarion, Saturday. We are going by bus and will not get back until Sunday at noon.

FEBRUARY 6, 1926

We left Indian this morning at ten o'clock. Our first stop was Punxsutawney where we got out to get some air. Here we purchased some "saltines" to sustain us until lunch time. Our next stop was Brookville. We all welcomed Brookville for we knew that meant we were going to eat. We stopped at the "American Hotel" where we indulged in a very delightful dinner. Everyone was in the best of spirits and during the course of the meal, many funny experiences were related. We arrived at Clarion at three-thirty and as soon as we were taken to our rooms, we all slept until time for dinner. After dinner, we dressed for the game. And such a game as it was! It was the most exciting game we have played so far. The score was tied every minute of the game even to the very last. Our guards displayed their tact in holding down Clarion to a close margin.

After the game, we were invited to attend a reception which Clarion was giving for the new students. We played games and danced until 11:30. We were all quite ready to retire but someone suggested that we eat, and of course we all fell for the suggestion. Those who were ambitious, went down town and brought up sandwiches, pickles, pie and ice cream. We ate and sang to the tune of "ukes" until we dropped off to sleep.

FEBRUARY 7, 1926

We ate breakfast at eight o'clock this morning. After breakfast we all piled into the bus and started homeward. We stopped at Punxsutawney where we got out again to get some air. Our bus driver insisted that we all come into the drug store and have something to eat. We hated to impose on his good nature but he urged us to accept. After this delightful treat we started on for Indiana. We arrived just before dinner. We all went up north steps expressing regret that our enjoyable week-end was over.

FEBRUARY 9, 1926

We were discussing our schedule for the rest of the season today. We are going to play the W. A. A. Friday, February 12. We are anticipating the following games:

Juniata—February 26—at Indiana
Slippery Rock—March 12—at Slippery Rock
Clarion—March 20—at Indiana

We regret that the season is almost over, for during these months of training, our "haps" and "mishaps" have joined us in a strong bond of friendship.

ISABELLE WILSON.

W. A. A.

URING the second week of January a meeting of all W. A. A. members interested in basketball was held. About forty-five prospective players were present. These were grouped into teams and after a number of tryouts and hard practices a team was chosen to represent W. A. A. The team decided on the original name, "The T. N. T. Tossers."

The season opened the first week in February when the team met Clymer on the Armory floor. The team created quite a bit of excitement when they came on with the black symbols "T. N. T." on their middies. The game proved to be very fast and quite interesting to the large group of spectators.

In the second week of February the W. A. A. team played the Girls' Varsity Squad. The results of this game were not really as disastrous as had been anticipated.

The following Saturday an exciting game was played with Blairsville High School. In this game our team showed excellent training and clever pass work.

February 22 a practice game was played at the Armory with Indiana High Seniors. The T. N. T. Tossers won by a score of 41-5.

On March 2 the team will journey to Blairsville and on the 13th are scheduled to play a return game with Clymer.

Tennis

TENNIS was one of the most popular sports at Indiana this year. Almost everyone enjoyed the sport although only about twenty of the best players entered the tennis tournament. The spring tennis tournament was one of the most interesting ever held at Indiana. It showed the exceptional skill in tennis that Indiana possesses.

The spring tennis tournament was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association under the supervision of Miss Mabel Apple. Many enthusiastic players reported and were signed up with their opponents. As each girl played off her bracket, the excitement increased.

The semi-finals were watched by many of the student body. After defeating Elizabeth Bergman, Mary McDonnell was presented with the cup. Both girls played exceptionally well, and it was not until the last set that the victor could be proclaimed.

Our tennis team also deserves much credit. Mary McDonnell, Genevieve Lowman, and Lizette McDonnell represented our school at Slippery Rock. Although we did not win the cup the girls made a good record for Indiana.

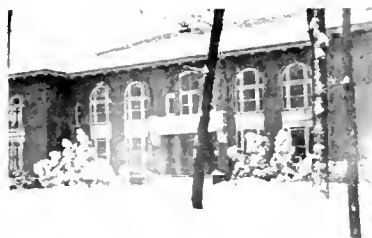

There is good material with which to start an enthusiastic season next fall, so that together with some new material, we may look forward to another successful tennis season.

FEATURE

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

Monday 14

School again in swing. Many new faces are seen. We can easily tell the Juniors. Yes, that's the dormitory, not recitation hall. Smash your baggage.

Tuesday 15

Classes resume again for the year. Everyone is happy, many students still pouring in, we expect many more. Good luck to ye, Juniors.

Wednesday 16

Everyone is still happy; boys are practising football and the girls are playing tennis. My oh my, what a life! The Juniors are still trying to adapt themselves.

Thursday 17

Rain, rain, and more rain. What an array of slickers, and the various styles; there are concrete ones, we mean cretonne. It is a pretty slick slicker. Junior fellow go to chapel by way of the library, horrors! For girls only.

Friday 18

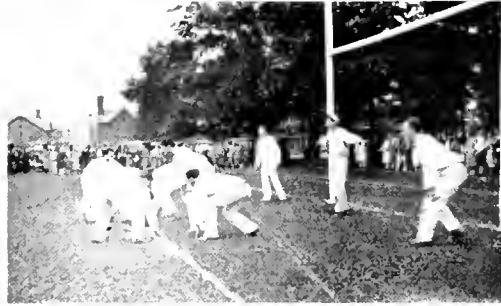

The rain has certainly made everything fresh and green, of course the Juniors have nothing on the rain. Many want or rather crave excitement. Wait until tomorrow nite.

Saturday 19

Do we have classes on Saturday? Well, the dance has finally arrived, it came in on the 7:29, it is only for one hour so make the best of it

INITIATION

OCTOBER

Thursday 1

Judgment day is drawing nigh, the boys all look worried, they'll look worse after Saturday night. Here's hoping they'll come through O. K.

Friday 2

The day before the big game. We must beat Altoona, gang so let's go. The initiates still look puzzled. Pep meeting in chapel, some noise.

Saturday 3

The opening day of football. It sure is cold. Heck, Altoona won, 9-6, but the boys played hard. The game between halves was a dandy, the Phi-Alphas won from the Omega Chi's 6-0 believe me it was a happy victory, for the victors did not receive a severe paddling, but oh! my what a wailing the losers did get. A few batting averages increased.

Monday 5

A few of the gang can't sit, but they will in a few days. Everyone is happy and there are sure many smiling faces on the campus. Famous sayings, It didn't hurt.

Tuesday 6

No one seriously hurt. Football practice again, many of the gang didn't feel like practising.

Wednesday 7

Oh, what a life, nothing to do but study, show me the way to go home.

Leaves are beginning to fall. I fear Winter is coming.

Thursday 8

Rain for a change, every one is sporting slickers, even the fire plugs. What a wet day this turned out to be.

Friday 9

Our cheer-leaders will surely need something if they keep that up. Pep meeting in chapel, and still they shout for more. Edinboro is in for a trimming tomorrow.

Saturday 10

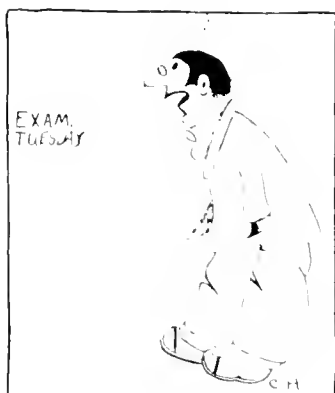

What did I tell you, we beat Edinboro by the score of 10-0. That's the old fight gang. Sharkey presented the cheer-leaders with a box of Smith Bros. Did we dance? I'll say we did. Snow today. Snow use.

Monday 12

Everyone is blue today, even the Charleston dog forgot to enter the dining room. Miss Swisher is having a fine time keeping him out. Better days are coming.

Tuesday 13

Sh! Sh! We may get ten days for Thanksgiving. We can't say positively. Boys play away from home this week. Robert took several good pictures of the first game. Famous saying: "Was my name read out?"

Thursday 15

Mr. Phidelah Rice, noted lecturer, gave a talk in Chapel and then a one-act play at nite. He knows his stuff.

Friday 16

The boys are off to Bloomsburg. Here's hoping they win. Of course, it would be raining. Mrs. Rice portrays her ability.

Saturday 17

Hurrah! The boys won at Bloomsburg. Three cheers. Rah! Rah! Rah! Score 7-0. Mr. and Mrs. Rice entertained the audience by giving a few one-act plays.

Monday 19

Boys started in training for this week's game with Westinghouse Tech. Westinghouse hasn't lost any game. It will be exciting, we think. Literary program.

Tuesday 20

A man on Second Floor of Clark Hall. What an uproar! Peg Morton has nearly gone crazy wondering why he didn't come up to the Third floor.

US JUNIOR HIGHS IS SOME GUYS

Wednesday 21

Rothrock missed breakfast for the first time this year. Bad record, Gil. How the time does fly. One month of school practically gone.

Thursday 22

"Extra maids needed," Drumheller spilled the coffee at the breakfast table. We suggest that he get a high chair.

Saturday 24

The boys didn't lose or win to Westinghouse. Score 6-6. Plenty of rain. Better days are coming. Wait and see.

Monday 26

Nothing new, except loads of Noyes down at the Ritz. Noyes certainly knows his stuff when it comes to poetry.

Wednesday 28

If we don't get ten days then we have a month 'till Thanksgiving and seven weeks until Christmas.

Thursday 29

Fellows have a hard scrimmage for this week's battle with Carnegie Tech Freshman.

Friday 30

Girls have Halloween party in Rec. Hall. Oh, boy! the costumes, they were neat.

Saturday 31

"Halloween." Many table parties and loads of noise in the dining room. I am glad it comes once a year. Fellows lost—Score 39-0.

DID YOU SEE--

FRIDAY OCT. 29, AT THE HALLOWEEN REVEL?

NOVEMBER

Tuesday 3

A new club organized in the Commercial Department called the "Sniffle Club," one must be a good sniffer for eligibility to membership. Norman Wertmen was elected President, Vice-President and Secretary.

Wednesday 4

Election day. The first issue of Penn is out, not a bad paper, the only trouble with it is, that there isn't enough gossip in it. How do you like the football picture?

Thursday 5

I think we'll get 10 days for Thanksgiving. Boys are practicing hard out in the field, we must beat Kent, Saturday.

Friday 6

Cheer leading in chapel again, I wish they'd forget it. Famous sayings, "Don't forget your megaphones." Kent arrived in a bus, my, oh my, what a bus!

Saturday 7

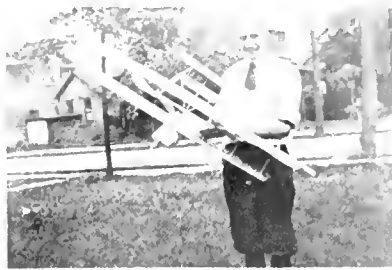

It is a rainy Saturday for a change, I fear something has happened up above, for it has either rained or snowed on Saturday since football season. Schimmel takes a spill. Well, here's hoping we win. We didn't lose and didn't win, we broke even, 6-6. Still raining. Omega Chi's held a banquet and what a feed.

POPULARITY PERSONIFIED

Monday 9

Funny thing. Monday is the 2nd day of the week. We advise the two Juniors not to talk with their fingers in the library, but to write notes, for it may give a stranger a false idea of our school. Literary Program.

Tuesday 10

The day passed unnoticed, many are still wondering about our Thanksgiving holidays. Names read in chapel. That is, some names were read.

Wednesday 11

Armistice day, flags displayed, many thought that it was Firpo's birthday. He was born February 29. His next birthday will be in 1928.

Thursday 12

Boys are putting in a hard practice for they must beat Lock Haven on Saturday. Of course, we expect rain.

Friday 13

Unlucky Friday, my what a day this turned out to be. According to the casualty list, no one was hurt or killed. That's a good record. No sign of rain!

Saturday 14

Did we beat Lock Haven? I'll say we did, 60-0, and it surely was a beautiful day, sun and everything. The cheer-leaders will donate their megaphones to any girl who cares for them. Saturday nite dance. The boys did step on it. (I mean on the girl's toes.)

Monday 15

Hurrah, we get 10 days for Thanksgiving. Oh, boy! That's the best thing that has happened on Monday in a long time.

Tuesday 16

John Alexick is back from New Mexico. He came back because they wanted to make him an assistant to Villa. We are glad to have him back with us. Nothing else happened.

Wednesday 17

Sci-Hi Club had a chicken dinner at the Lincoln Tea Room, then they had a dance in the science room, the positives and the negatives. All but Saylor had a good time.

Thursday 18

Boys left for Shippensburg to win the Normal School Championship. Good luck, gang. It started to drizzle, but I think it will stop before they reach their destination.

Friday 19

Everyone excited and packing to go home. The boys lost, 14-6. Tuff luck.

Monday 30

Most everyone is back from the ten days' vacation. Gov. Pinchot gives a short talk.

DECEMBER

Tuesday 1

Twenty-two days until Christmas. Everyone is happy and glad to be back. We are having nice weather. Football season is over.

Wednesday 2

Same as any other Wednesday. Second edition of Indiana Penn out. S. Y. S. P. Support your school paper.

Thursday 3

Posters are up, something about a play on Saturday night. All-star cast in the play, it is going to be good.

Friday 4

Bring nickels. Y. W. is going to sell eskimo pies, or hot chocolate. The cast has a final rehearsal for the play.

Saturday 5

The cast arrives by the B. R. & P. Well, the play was a great success and much of the credit is due Miss Sprowls.

Friday 11

Fraser Grange portrayed his ability as a singer and how that boy could sing!

Monday 7

Breisacher is walking with his hand in a sling, from the hand shakes he passed out since Saturday. Literary program.

Tuesday 8

Report read in Chapel. Famous saying: "Listen for my name." The second Tuesday in the month there is a 100 per cent attendance in Chapel.

Wednesday 9

For this week-end program, we have the Senior Prom, so fellows, you won't have a chance this week.

Thursday 10

Nothing happened today, same as usual. Plenty of work to keep us going for next two weeks.

Saturday 12

The big day has arrived. If all the fellows attended school, we would have a great institution. All Juniors went to the show.

Monday 14

The morning after the night before. All the fellows have departed, and now the old school gang will blossom out again. Messiah given at the Ritz Theatre.

GREAT PERSONAGES CAUGHT IN THEIR LEISURE MOMENTS ~

Tuesday 15

Only ten days 'till Christmas. Gee, how the days seem to drag. Indiana Penn out. This is the Christmas number.

Wednesday 16

Oh, boy, one week from today! There is nothing on for the coming week-end. Of course, plenty of work.

Thursday 17

First call for girl candidates for basket-ball. Forty reported. Of course, girls, six are all Miss Reiss will need.

Saturday 19

Basket-ball season started. Fellows win their first game. Regular Saturday Night dance resumed after two weeks' lay off. Christmas program by Literary Society.

Monday 21

Only three days left. Everybody is busy shopping and buying gifts for the tables for the party tomorrow night.

Tuesday 22

Christmas table parties. The dining hall is certainly beautifully decorated. Everyone was a receiver of a gift. Good eats and plenty of dancing. Oh, boy, what a time!

Wednesday 23

Inter-Fraternity Dance. Nice time. The Editor of the Feature Section wishes you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Good-bye, please.

Monday 4

Next station—Indiana. From the looks of things everyone had a good time, all except the gang from the East (not China) who came in three hours late. Good train service.

Tuesday 5

Rain the first day back. Not a bad greeting. Only three months 'till Easter, wow! What a wait!

Wednesday 6

According to reports many girls learned a few new dancing steps and are making use of Recreation Hall after dinner to practice.

Thursday 7

Basket-ball teams are practicing so that Indiana can have good teams this year. Coach Ruffner has good material to work with and so has Coach Reiss; only the girls don't seem to get along for they pull each other's hair. The bob-haired girl is fortunate.

Friday 8

Mr. Beebe falls and hurts only his dignity.

JUST A SLIP

A piece of ice,
A frantic pose,
A little squeal,
And down he goes.
His knickers got wet;
His papers flew.
Embarrassed man,
What could he do?
He tried to rise,
But all in vain
His dignity
To earth was lain.
He first turned green
And then turned red,
Rose, grabbed his books
And homeward fled.

Saturday 9

That wasn't an earthquake you heard this A. M. It was Virg and Mike getting to their eight o'clock class on time after a good morning's hike. Football team banquet to a rabbit dinner. It was a dandy meal. Captain Sweeney's oration was well delivered and to him goes the cast-iron shaving mug.

Sunday 10

Gert Miller tells us she saw a robin. Spring is here?

Monday 11

The unusual, "I wish I were home" and "I hope I get a letter" story is circulating around the school. Doesn't the time fly? One week gone.

Tuesday 12

Painters up on third floor. I think the center of attraction is Mary Hile's haircut. She should have had them all cut.

Wednesday 13

Seniors chose a class ring. It looks like a dinner ring. Bishop

McConnell gave a very fine talk on "Social Imagination." He was witty.

Thursday 14

This day passed unnoticed. Nothing much happened. We would advise Jo Gorman not to talk in the dining room to her roommate by signs, for it may cause a fatality. What say, Fred?

Friday 15

Junior High Party. Lots of fun and good eats. We would suggest to Bus that he cut out his promiscuousing on the steps. He should have known better.

Saturday 16

Basketball games with Shady-Side Academy. What a game! We beat them 34-32. Slippery Rock Normal were a little too slippery for our girls and gave them a severe beating. Big dance tonight with the visitors.

Monday 18

This is the final week of the semester. We shall see many new faces next week. One can notice a happy grin on the faces of the teaching Seniors. Literary Program.

Tuesday 19

INSTANO Board Staff tries to have a meeting in Erodelphian Hall to discuss the progress of INSTANO. If everything works out O. K., we shall have a great book. Many girls are having their locks trimmed.

Wednesday 20

Did anyone notice Agnes Tompkins run across the Campus? Well, Postum—There's a reason. If anyone hasn't heard about this, kindly ask McCormick who will gladly give full particulars.

Thursday 21

Men's Popularity Contest for the INSTANO. Do you notice the manner in which the fellows are walking around? We have the sheiks. Let the best man win.

Friday 22

Basketball team left for Bellefonte and Bloomsburg. Good luck, fellows! We lost to Bellefonte.

Saturday 23

A new play called "Youngest" will be given by the Literary Society on February 20. There are quite a few good actors in the school. Our team lost to Bloomsburg.

WHAT COULD WE DO WITHOUT THEM?

Monday 25

New semester starts. Many new faces, also those Seniors who had a good time doing practice teaching are back to work. Lights out all over the building. Girls studying in the halls. No Literary.

Tuesday 26

Lights are still out and all the doors are heavily guarded. Of course, girls, home could never be like this. Cast for the play practice by candles.

Wednesday 27

Editor of Feature Section talks to a handful in Chapel about Popularity Contest. No lights yet, we hope nothing serious has happened. Mr. Fleming is kept busy, hunting for the difficulty.

Thursday 28

We are promised lights for the Concert tomorrow night and also in the rooms. It is getting colder, and we fear that winter is coming in on the 7:29.

Friday 29

Wanda Landowski, noted Harp-sichordist, entertained us by some beautiful selections.

Saturday 30

One week of the semester gone. It certainly was a long week. Team beats West Liberty Normal School of West Virginia and the Scrubs beat Saltsburg. Saturday Nite dance for visitors. Many fellows look blue, visitors take their girls.

Monday 1

First day of health month. We shall see many healthy folks for this month. Literary program.

Tuesday 2

Groundhog day, he doesn't see his shadow. This long winter will be at an end.

Wednesday 3

King breaks his track record running back and fro to Clark Hall. There's a reason.

Thursday 4

Boys play Pitt Chiropractors. Beat them. Allebah had his knee reset. Nothing else happened.

Friday 5

Health talk in chapel. I hope that most of us will take heed of the advice given.

Saturday 6

Nothing new, only two weeks of the semester gone. Regular dance.

Monday 8

Chapel looks empty. Judgment day is close at hand. Cast for new play is practicing very hard for play.

Thursday 11

Men's popularity contest begins.

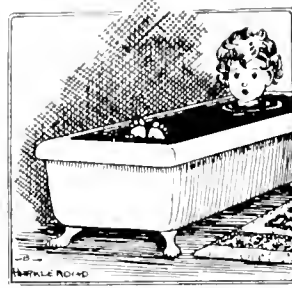

Friday 12

Contest is still on and from reports we are going to have a great contest. Health talk in chapel. We'll have a healthy looking crew. Lincoln's birthday.

Saturday 13

Contest is over and those in charge have the pleasure of tabulating notes. Bellefonte beats our boys. Tuff luck. It was a good game. Mrs. Brew has decided not to attend any more games, fat chance.

Monday 15

We now begin the week of exams. The night lamp will be put into use. Literary program by W. A. A.

Saturday 20

Fellows lost to Titusville. Bishop loses bet. Play was a total success. Whaling expedition for the frat boys.

Tuesday 16

Initiations for frats begin. There will be a whaling expedition this week-end and also the play.

Monday 22

Many of the boys that were paddled came around O. K. Everything is running in harmony. Literary program. Washington's birthday. Nothing but the truth.

Wednesday 17

Cast for play is having a dress rehearsal tonight. Tickets exchanged for play. Expect to have a big crowd.

Tuesday 23

Report day. Many a sad look on a few faces. Famous sayings: "Was my name read?"

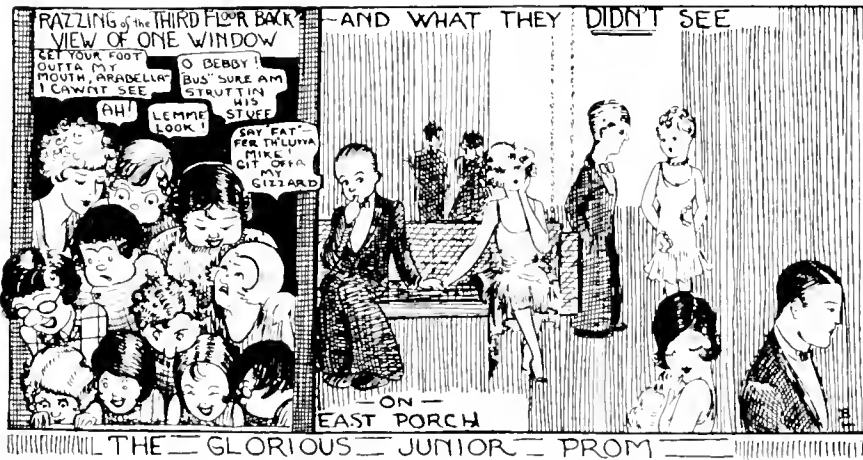

Friday 19

First night of play. Success. "Mac" certainly was the youngest. Dot Berg, social celebrity, did O. K.

Wednesday 24

Manager Gallagher talks in chapel and distributes cheers. No pep in school. Bloomsburg this week. We must beat them.

Thursday 25

Pep meeting in chapel. If everyone comes to the game, "Bloom" will look sick.

son and we had a dandy crowd. Expected to dance, but nothing doing.

Friday 26

We lost to "Bloom". Boys played a hard game. Last game of sea-

Saturday 28

This ends health month and we hope you all profited by it.

MARCH

Monday 1

In like a lamb, out like a lion. I suppose we are due for a long winter. Literary program.

Tuesday

Only four weeks 'till Easter and a vacation. The Commercials need it, for they are being overworked, especially the Second Year Class.

Wednesday 3

Snow, snow and more snow, and according to the weather prophet, we will get a few more carloads on the 7:20.

Friday 5

Fellows journey to Altoona and are beaten by the score of 49-23. It was a whopper of a game. We saw a few of Indiana's Alumni, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Roy Light and Art Pentz. It was a long, tiresome ride home.

Saturday 6

Many of the fellows who played on the team overslept and missed classes. Those who went to classes dozed in class.

Monday 8

The fraternities are going to run a play for the benefit of the Jane Leonard Memorial Fund. The title of the play is, "In Walked Jimmy". It is composed of an all male cast. No Literary.

Saturday April 10

Frat play.

Saturday, April 17

Second Year Prom.

Saturday, April 24

Play entitled, "Goose Hangs High."

Saturday, May 1

Commercial Tea.

Saturday, May 15

Commercial contest.

Tuesday, June 1

COMMENCEMENT

She Knew

As his feet touched the porch, Gladys was at the door. "Precious, where have you been? I have been in constant fear since you left me."

She went to the sofa and smoothed the pillow for him, nestling close to his side, as he sat down. As he felt her warm embrace, their eyes met. His large brown eyes were overflowing with passion. He could not utter a word, though his eyes spoke volumes. Running her soft, white hand through his curly locks she gave a start. There was blood on the tips of her fingers! "Rover, you've been fighting again," she cried.

Girls are like final examinations—they keep a fellow up all night worrying about them, and then ask the most foolish questions.—Froth.

Abie (calling central)—"Vill you gif me the correct time, please?"

Central—"We are not allowed to give correct time."

Abie—"Vell what time would it be if you were allowed to give correct time?"—Froth.

POPULARITY PLUS+

Misunderstanding

In this paradoxical world of ours,
 (Be it man or the earth or the sky)
There's a number of things that I can't understand,
 No matter how hard I may try.

Where are the shingles in the roof of your mouth?
 Have you crossed the bridge of your nose?
Do you wear on your head the cap of your knee?
 Or hammer the nails in your toes?

Have you ever played on the drum of your ear?
 Or ridden the hoarse in your throat?
Do you ever get milk from the calf of your leg?
 Or the butt of a gun from a goat?

Do you ever box the cars of your corns?
 And where goes your lap when you stand?
Do you get any speech from the tongue of your shoe?
 Or shade from the palm of your hand?

Do you get any interest on the dough in your bread?
 Or a tune from the band in your hat?
Did you ever get weighed on the scales of a fish?
 Or eat a square meal when you're flat?

Was it Darwin who put a nape in your neck?
 Does an undertaker make bootleg bier?
Should the back of a thing come after the front?
 Or should the front go ahead of the rear?

To me, education has missed its great aim,
 And I'm afraid I'm compelled to confess
When I've made up my mind that the answer is "no,"
 Then I'm sure that it ought to be "yes"!

PAUL L. TURSE.

Jokes

Don't be afraid to invest in a smile—
It's always worth face value.

Mr. Marsh in Science Class—"Does any one know the difference between lightning and electricity?"
Saylor—"You don't have to pay for lightning."

Wireless Broadcasting Station—"Next number will be 'Three O'clock in the Morning.'"
Kats—"By cracky, I'm going to set my alarm clock and get up to hear that."

I asked her if she rolled them,
She said she'd never tried—
Just then a mouse ran swiftly by,
And then I knew she lied.

The longest word in my vocabulary is: Superspondelologicalex-tromoligloceus.

Her teeth were like stars—
They came out at night.

Teacher (History of Ed Class)—"Miss Sutton (Mid), will you please awaken Miss Squibb?"
Mid—"Do it yourself. You put her to sleep."

Pat—"Do you know, dear, that I've always had a wonderful ear for music?"

Gladys—"Really, is that so?"

Pat—"Yes, at the age of two I used to play on the linoleum."

When you see a dashing Senior
Blushing scarlet in the face,
Every time he pulls his watch out,
There's a woman in the case.

Alice—"Are all men fools?"

Chet—"No, some are bachelors."

She used to sit upon his lap,
As happy as could be.
But now it makes her seasick,
He has water on his knee.

BREISACHER TO DOT HAHN

Ah! Dottette,
I can't forget
The day we met.
How I regret
The way you set
And et and et,
I'm paying yet
For what you et.
Ah! such a debt!

A NEW VERSION

Gladys had a little light,
She had it trained, no doubt,
'Cause every time that "Monty" called,
The little light went out.

Some people are born great,
Others acquire greatness,
And others "grate" upon you.

The wagon sticks its tongue out,
And the wood begins to shed—
And the bell rings down the curtain,
The bed stands on its head.
The table tries to cross its legs,
While the carpet always lies,
Meanwhile the new potato—
Is making googoo eyes.

If a body sees a body
Flunkin' in a quiz;
If a body helps a body,
Is it any teacher's biz?

Dot Kahn—Miss R. said she could read me like a book.
Peg—Well, I suppose you immediately got red.

Ethel—Would you like to take a nice long walk?
Kellar—Sure!
Ethel—Well, don't let me detain you.

Coach—Smoking, hey?

Bishop—No, Lucky Strikes.

Coach to Katz (who is to keep basketball score)—What do you do to put a man in?

Katz—Take one out.

Noel—Did you take a bath?

Kellar—Why, did someone lose one?

Waiter—Tea or coffee, sir?

Hickes—How many guesses do I get?

Mac—Run upstairs and get my watch.

Firp—Oh, wait awhile and it'll run down.

Mac—No, it won't,—ours is a winding stairway.

Mid—Peg Morton isn't as big a flirt as she used to be.

Mary Hile—Why? Reforming?

Mid—No, reducing.

 4. A nit on the neck of a gnat is the smallest thing in the world.

Try to solve the following problems:

1. If your head aches half as much as you say your head ache doesn't ache twice as much as mine aches.
1. If your head aches half as much as you say your head aches, it doesn't ache twice as much as mine aches.
2. If bread and an egg make an egg sandwich, what does soup and bread make?
3. If a small brook is a brooklet, is a small bull a bullet?
4. Can Salsgiver ride an elephant with ease?

Maley—Did you see the conductor look at you as if you had not paid your fare?

Katz—Yes, and did you see me look at him as if I had?

Couldn't you start the Cadillac
What part of the car is that?

She's a lady of high birth.
Couldn't she get a lower?

Savage—Going out with the four hundred?
Drummy—No, I spent it this afternoon.

Chet—Have you made up your mind to stay in?
Alice—No, I've made up my face to go out.

NOTE ON THEATRE PROGRAM

"The management reserves the right to exclude any lady they think proper."

An absent-minded professor is the one who shut his daughter off and smiled at his radiator.

Firp—Her niece is rather good looking, eh?
Mac—Don't say "knees is," say "knees are."

In science class—We will now name all the lower animals in order, starting with Luke.

Jo Gorman, to Pearl Smith (who was weighing herself)—Now, take the gum out of your mouth and see how much you weigh.

Teacher—Give me a sentence with the word hypotenuse.
Peg Morton—I wanted to read the funnies, so hypotenuse paper.

Mattern—Didja hear of the Light Sisters?
Cedy Clay—No.
Mattern—They go out together.

Ulshafer—When I was in China I saw a woman hanging from a tree.
Turse—Shanghai?
Ulshafer—Oh, about six feet.

What do you think of Schimmel as a singer?

He's pretty good.

And of Drummy?

He's better still.

Prof.—How come you and Hickes handed in the same answers in my history quiz?

Rea—I believe that history repeats itself.

Mac—Did you see The Knockout?

Achey—No. Which way did she go?

Everything comes to him who orders hash.

Teacher—Warren, I am tempted to keep you in after school.

Maley—Yield not to temptation, teacher.

Bill McClain (left in charge of the baby)—Aw, they ought to send a book of instructions with these things.

VEGETABLE LANGUAGE

Do you carrot all for me? My heart beets all for you. You are the apple of my eye. With your radish and turnip nose, my love for you is soft as squash and strong as an onion. If we cantaloupe then lettuce marry. I know we'll make a happy pear.

Alice McDonald—How did you get so round-shouldered?

Agnes Tompkins—Winding up the victrola for my daily dozen records.

Mac—What's a team of horses worth?

Katz—Well, they always have two bits in their mouths.

Brennan—So your mother calls you Son?

Firp—No, Aurora Borealis.

Brennan—How come?

Firp—I'm her midnight Son.

A student knocked at Heaven's Gate.

St. Peter asked: "Where are you from?"

"Indiana," was the reply.

"Well, you may come in but you won't like it."

Love makes the world go round.
But so does a sock in the jaw.

Webb—A corporation is a partnership plus—what?
Bush—Surplus.

Dunstan was cleaning his nails with his penknife in class one morning.

Rinehart—Cut that out.
Dunstan—I am.

Turse—Why is Stover like a fish?
Wertman—I don't know. Why?
Turse—He has a "Gill."

Mrs. Walsh, after seating Sociology Class alphabetically: "Every time you come in this room, take the same seats for you shall be marked on your seat in this class."

Teacher—Mike, why are you not writing?

Davis—I ain't got no pen.

Teacher—Where's your grammar?

Davis—She's dead.

Dentist—Pardon me a moment, Miss, I must have a drill.

Estella Finn—Can't I even have a tooth fixed without a rehearsal?

The roar of Niagara is to be broadcast by radio, thus providing a honeymoon for every home.

Virgil Saylor and Mrs. M. J. Sweeney, have returned to resume their studies at State College after spending several days at the home of Mr. Saylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Saylor.

Virg—I need a haircut, or a violin.

He said I was a thing to adore.

I guess he meant a knocker.

No, a belle.

Oh! It gives me a very great pain
To see the afternoon train
Go down the road
With one-half of a load
When it might carry that many again.

Voice—Hello, is this the weather bureau?

Ans.—Uh huh.

Voice—How about a shower this afternoon?

Ans.—I dunno. If you need one take it.

She—Tell me that you love me.

He—I love you.

She—Say it as though you meant it.

He—I love you.

She—Say it with more feeling.

He—What is this, a dramatic rehearsal?

He—Do you take Biology, too?

She—No, I'm still taking Biology 1.

After the ball is over. Touchdown! Touchdown!

She—A truck bumped into me the other day.

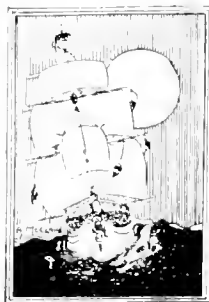

He—No! Where?

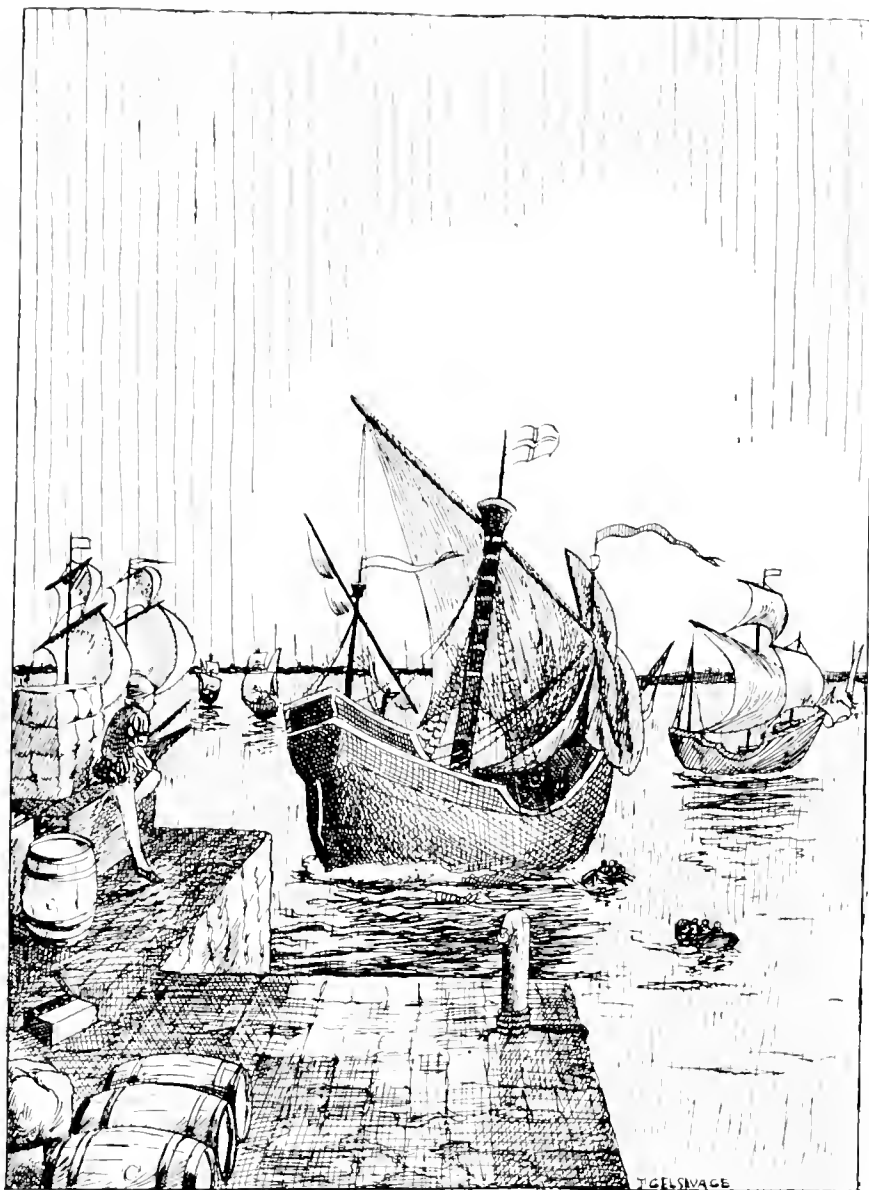

She—Well—if you must know——

He—Yeah!

She—In back of the Court House.

APPRECIATION of contact with the outside world was shown by eager awaiting of merchant vessels laden with spices, silks, and precious stones.

TURN TIME INTO MONEY

- ¶ Several of our College Sales Representatives have found it possible to derive a nice income to help them finance their education and at the same time always have spending money. We offer you the same opportunity.
- ¶ One of our representatives earned nearly one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in commissions last scholastic year and no doubt will exceed that amount this year.
- ¶ We will give you every support and will arrange your continuing the representation during the following years should we believe it to be to our mutual advantage.
- ¶ Write your application, outlining your qualifications fully, in your own handwriting.
- ¶ We advise your doing so immediately as only one representative will be appointed in each class.
- ¶ Your letter should include name of School, College, or University, your class next year, and your photograph. A Snapshot will do.
